FROM THE BOARD ROOM

Today's visitors are Enfield and may I extend a warm welcome to those visiting us today and wish you all a safe journey home afterwards.

Tuesday nights defeat to Maidstone was extremely tough to take as for large parts of the games we more than held our own and a case of the same old story not taking our chances when they arrive. To compound matters Calvin's sending off was unfortunate and harsh. When things are against you they really are.

We have to dust ourselves down and go again and keep believing, today is a big game for both sides, they all are now in truth.

Keelan O'Connell left for Poole this week having expressed a wish to leave the football club, he leaves after nearly four years here and we wish him well.

Keep getting behind the players and management, I know it's tough at the moment, but we have to stick together.

Paul

FROM THE SA PETE NASH

Good afternoon everyone. I would like to offer a warm Weymouth welcome to the officials, staff and players of Enfield Town, hope they enjoy their brief stay at The Bob Lucas Stadium and wish them safe travels.

Unfortunately I was unable to attend the game on Tuesday evening, but it goes without saying it was not the result we hoped for. So here we are and we go again, in what is without question a very important fixture. I don't need to say any more, we all know what we need to do today!

These are tough times we are going through and we totally understand the frustration you all feel, we feel it too! All I can do is assure you, that as your representative on the Board of Directors, every decision we make is given careful consideration and we never set out to do anything that will harm this great football club. Not everything works out how we planned it, that is just the vagaries of life in non league football. All I can ask is that you don't believe all you read online, it simply does not reflect the reality of the given situation. We do not want the club to be relegated, it is not in our best interests on any level. For sure we live in challenging times for this club and we need you all to stick with us, more now than ever. We are all working as hard as we can and will continue to do so on behalf of you all.

On a positive note, the Supporters Association have worked really hard for you this season, donating over £14,000 to the club so far this season, an impressive total. This sum is made up of shop profits, Christmas raffle and Claret and Blue Lottery which we administer for the club. There are also scratch cards, golden goal and quiz nights, which all add to the pot. We have a few more fundraisers to go, including this seasons Hall of Fame, another quiz night and we are investigating the possibility of a car boot sale towards the seasons end. So plenty for us still to do. If any one of you out there would like to offer some help, or better still, join us on the SA board, we would love to hear from you.

Please enjoy the game today and cheer the lads. As ever, thanks for reading. Best wishes to you all and thank you for your continued support.

Pete

STATS AND FACTS NUMBERS BEHIND THE GAME

VS Enfield Town

All v all ENF clubs – P23 W6 D3 L14 %26-13-61
Home v all ENF clubs – P11 W3 D2 L6 %27-18-55

Will the real Enfield please stand up! Our opponents today are Enfield Town, a breakaway club disillusioned with the running of the “original” outfit.

Last 5 games & WFC scorers v all Enfield clubs

Current club

24/25 L0-1(A) Conference South

Former club

93/94 L1-2(H) Friendly – J Morley

90/91 W3-1a.e.t.(A) Club Call Cup - Fullbrook(2),
Doherty

88/89 L0-3(A) Conference

88/89 L2-3(H) Conference – Donegal, Conning

That breakaway occurred in 2001 but, just six years later, the original Enfield club was liquidated and reborn as “Enfield 1893” with cries for a merger at that point voted down. That club later rebranded to “Enfield FC”. At one point both of these “new” clubs were in the same league but Town have since risen higher than their rivals, culminating in this, their debut season in the Conference South.

Recent league form –

WEY(DDLLL) Last L0-1 v Maidstone(H)

ENF(LLWLD) Last D1-1 v Bath(H)

Our only match against this current club was earlier this season on matchday 10 when we visited Hertfordshire but returned home pointless, Beckles-Richards scoring the only goal of the game for the hosts.

Most goals in fixture v all Enfield clubs (Last 14 since 1984/85)

4 – Anni Iannone(WEY)

3 – Tony Agana, Sean Doherty(WEY), Gary Abbott, Dave Flint, Nick Francis, Paul Furlong(ENF)

Our most recent meeting against the “original” Enfield was in 1993 when the London side impressed in a pre-season friendly at the Bob Lucas by winning 2-1 but we have to go back to 1990 for our last competitive game - a 3-1 victory for the Terras in the short lived Club Call cup – a sort of non league cup for the top three divisions in English football.

Manager – Gavin MacPherson(1yrs 8mths)

Previous – Andy Leese (6 yrs)

Squads last time we met –

5th October 2024 – Conference South(A) Lost 0-1
TERRAS – Buse, Hamblin(Genesini 46), Jones(McQuoid 46), Brooks, Jo Thompson, Rowan, Robinson,
O'Connell(Ward 64), Maguire-Drew(Greenwood 56),
Bearwish, Pollock(Touray 70)

The halcyon days of this fixture were in the 1980's though. Then Enfield were one of the best sides in non-league football and the Terras often tried (but rarely succeeded) to join them in that lofty position over eight consecutive seasons of conference league football from 1981/82. Our games would often be high scoring, feisty affairs with players and managers alike being given their marching orders, epitomised by the epic 4-4 draw in December 1985. However, as the tally at the top of this sheet shows, it was more often than not the “Townners” who would end up on the winning side, despite stellar players in the Weymouth line-up such as Tony Agana & Anni Iannone.

ENFIELD – Forster, Parcell, Benjamin, Payne, Adjei-Hersey, Tuck, Youngs, Peake (Leonard 65), Mills,
Hutchinson, Ottaway (Beckles-Richards 65)

Played for both teams...a selection

DOME-BEMWIN, Michael...DUROJAIYE, Scott...

His favourite Terra is Calvin Brooks.

It was Freddie's birthday last Wednesday - Happy birthday Freddie - we hope you have a great day.

KEEP AN EYE ON

Rhys FORSTER

Town's number one Rhys Forster joined the club in the summer of 2023 and asserted his place between the sticks by chalking up 17 clean sheets in 49 appearances during his debut season. The 25-year-old has amassed plenty of non-league experience with the likes of Slough Town, Hampton & Richmond, Met Police – where he spent 18 months with manager Gavin Macpherson – and Ascot United, with whom he won the FA Vase at Wembley in May 2023.

Joash Nembhard

A centre-back by trade, though also adept at left back or at the base of midfield, Joash is another player with extensive experience at step 2, having represented the likes of Havant & Waterlooville, Hemel Hempstead Town, and Dartford, where he ended last season. The 26-year-old has also worn the shirts of Staines Town and Welsh side TNS, with whom he won the Cymru Premier in 2019.

THE TOWNERS

Reece BECKLES-RICHARDS

Reece has been capped at international level by Antigua & Barbuda, and joined the Towners in the summer of 2023 having spent the previous three years up the A10 with neighbours Cheshunt. Starting out at Aldershot Town, his CV boasts plenty of non-league experience, with the likes of Woking, Farnborough, and Wealdstone among his former sides. Another versatile member of the Enfield ranks, he can operate on the wing or as a centre-forward.

THE TOUCHLINE

Gavin joined Enfield Town ahead of the 2023-24 campaign after parting company with Metropolitan Police FC, where he spent over twenty years as a player, assistant, and manager. Following a playing career for Barnet and Carlisle, as well as spells at Wealdstone, Slough Town and Woking, Macpherson took the managerial reins at the Met for the 2018-19 season after the resignation of Jim Cooper, guiding them to victory in the Southern League play-offs – only to be denied promotion at the final hurdle against Tonbridge Angels in a 'Super Play-off'. A widely-regarded coach who has gained a reputation for moulding highly competitive squads, often with young players, he guided the Towners to the National League South in 2024 via the Isthmian League play-offs during his first season in charge.

Woods Words

I don't know what we have to do to get that first home win.

I thought we competed well on Tuesday night, but ultimately the lack of goals proved the difference once again.

In saying that we had the chance with a penalty in the second half, but when things are not going for you they are not going for you.

I didn't think Maidstone were that impressive, but they are up there and had been on a very long unbeaten run up until recently, but I would say they didn't impress me as much as some of the other "teams at the top".

As for us, it very frustrating to lose by a narrow margin, one mistake seems to cost us matches.

I am trying to treat each match now in isolation and see where we are from there.

Today's visitors are like Tuesdays opponents Maidstone, a famous old name from our glory days in the conference in the 80s they were a formidable side then.

I think I am right in saying that also, like Maidstone, Enfield are technically a "new" club, but a famous old non league name nonetheless.

Those days seem a long time ago now, even more so when as a club you are not where you want to be.

Back to the here and now, our defeat at Enfield earlier in the season was very damaging, let's see if we can get a small revenge this afternoon.

'till next time,

Come On You Terras!

GREAT PLACES TO PLAY

Artificial Intelligence

Ben Ashleford

I really dislike artificial pitches. The ball runs too fast. It doesn't bounce properly, often bouncing higher than it would on grass and once you climb the leagues and if you're lucky enough to reach the football league, you have to rip it up and re-lay grass.

As an old fashioned son-of-a-gun I have said for years how much I dislike artificial surfaces. I've played and trained on them and commented on literally countless games played on one of these surfaces.

So why would I advocate for one now?

Well, only one reason really.... to be more self sufficient.

It's no secret that our training facilities are essentially non-existent. My first thought when replacing Mark and hiring Warren was, how is a manager supposed to bring in new ideas, systems, shapes and discipline when we can barely train them way we'd like, in fact, we can barely train at all. I honestly know pub teams that train more often than we are able to.

The current board have inherited this problem. This is something left behind by the previous incumbents of the football club. It's something that I know the chairman has desperately attempted to rectify but one that continues to haunt us.

All of this leads me back to an artificial pitch. If we could find the funding, which is easier said than done, but if we could then imagine having our own surface that could host our first team training and matches, our under 23s and our women's team. We could potentially have the under 23s and first team train together. Speaking of training, our away bar could even be utilised as a classroom should the manager really want to deliver a point or two.

With the lack of available facilities, our more than precarious league position and general frustration at our position, maybe stances like mine need to soften and perhaps we finally did something to move ourselves forward.

Lord knows nobody will do it for us.
