FROM THE BOARD ROOM

Today we host Aveley who like us our not having the season they would have wanted.

Football is a way of life for a lot of us and the pain we feel when it's not going our way is very real and cuts deep. Understandably the Board and mostly me have come in for criticism, I can understand that, it comes with the territory and let's face it the negatives always get spoken about more than the positives.

Last night we held the Hall of Fame Dinner which I would like to extend my thanks to the Supporters Association for organising the evening and also thank Celestial Catering and Kingston Maurward College for their support of the evening.

Thank you to those of you who are supporting the team through this difficult period and I know it's a labour of love at the moment but better times are ahead I'm sure of that.

MATCHDAY HOSPITALITY

FROM THE DUG OUT

I would like to wish a big welcome to all the Aveley players, staff and supporters, all the best.

I'm obviously disappointed with the defeat, but I thought the performance was decent. As I've said, we give some silly goals away.

We have now come to the part of the season when players don't know what they're doing with regards to their contracts going forward.

You know we've been in this position for a while, but we have to get through to the end of the season, reset and then look forward. Obviously, it's difficult when 99% players aren't used, we've got to manage them right, and as we say, look at moving forward together.

I want to thank the fans, they have been absolutely outstanding, and obviously coming into the back end of the season their support means so much.

Lets hope we get a Terras win today!

FROM THE SA

PETE NASH

Good afternoon everyone. I would like to offer a warm Weymouth welcome to officials, staff and players of Aveley, hope they enjoy their brief stay at The Bob Lucas Stadium and wish them safe travels.

I have not made too many comments regards playing matters recently in these programme notes! Nothing sinister in that, it's simply that I think we all know the situation we are in and what needs to happen if we are to have any chance of getting out of it. Everyone is entitled to their opinion on our prospects and I don't think it is justified when insults and brickbats are thrown around when opinions differ, none of that is going to help us. We need to all do our best and stick together and support the club in it's time of need. Supporters staying away only hurts us more and makes our situation worse, so please everyone, stay with us, and together we will enjoy better times ahead.

I would like to place on record our collective thanks to Frank Haverson who has stood down from the SA board with immediate effect due to personal reasons. Frank has been our regular Golden Goal seller since it's inception and also works behind the scenes, as do so many others, supporting the pitch crew with fuel runs for the mowers! Our thanks go to Frank for all the support he has given us over the years.

Finally from me, I would like to congratulate Simon Browne, Dave Camp, Simon Etherington and Alan Beer who were all inducted in the Terras Hall of Fame last night. Thank you to everyone who supported the event and made it an evening to remember.

Please try to enjoy the game today and get behind the lads who really appreciate your support. As ever, thanks for reading. Best wishes to you all and thank you for your continued support.

Pete

FROM THE TERRACES

THOMAS TAYLOR

Good afternoon everyone.

And a warm welcome for those who have made the journey from Essex this afternoon. We hope you enjoy your visit (without winning) to the Bob Lucas Stadium and have a safe journey back to Aveley.

The last two games against Chesham and Farnborough sadly have been the story of our season. Ok in parts then get undone by either a sloppy mistake or a Puskas Award Winning goal. But we must not kid ourselves of the reality, we just have not been good enough this season and as a result most of us sadly have accepted our inevitable fate of relegation to the Southern Premier League South. Whilst it is not over until it is mathematically impossible it will take a miracle that even the New Testament would not put in the bible due to it being incredulous to ensure another season in the National League South.

Last time out at home against Bath City was a shocking display in every single terms. For me it was the worst I have ever seen at the Bob Lucas Stadium. The only positive (if you can call it a positive) is that it was only 3-0 to the Romans. As if Bath clicked it up another gear it could have been seriously embarrassing. We well and truly hit rock bottom last time out at home. But today we have a chance to rectify that as they say the only way is up and that is against a side, we have a chance to complete a rare league double over this afternoon.

The Millers have had a difficult second season (not just our Millers having a difficult second season) in the National League South. From the highs of being minutes from the Play Off Final to being battling to stay in the league for another season. My prediction is that the Millers will be for their sake sadly heading back to the Isthmian League at the end of the season.

Let us try and end the season on some sort of a high if we can.

C'mon you Terras!

KEEP AN EYE ON

Razzaq COLEMAN DE-GRAFT

Aveley signed Raz at the beginning of the year from fellow National South side Maidstone United and went on to make 18 appearances for The Millers, bagging himself goal of the season after a stunning solo goal against his former side.

Raz also scored on his debut against National League side Dagenham & Redbridge in the BBC Essex Senior Cup, and also scored the winner at home to St Albans City at Parkside. Along with his three goals, he assisted four times.

Charlee HUGHES

Hughesy joined The Millers ahead of last season in July 2023 and went on to make 48 appearances upfront, scoring 14 times, including a hat-trick against former club Hemel Hempstead Town in a 4-3 victory, Charlee also assisted on four occasions too.

Prior to signing for Aveley, Charlee played for Brentwood Town and Maldon & Tiptree, where he was top goal scorer for both in back to back seasons with 20 in 33 for Brentwood and 30 in 45 games for The Jammers which earned him a move to National League side Wealdstone. Following a move to Hemel Hempstead, the forward moved to Aveley and helped The Millers to a seventh placed finish.

THE MILLERS

Harry BEADLE

Harry progressed through the Charlton Athletic academy prior to signing his first professional contract at Colchester United in June 2021.

He made his debut for The U's in the EFL Trophy match against Gillingham, and went on to feature against Tottenham Hotspur in the same competition last season.

The central defender was on the bench for the League Two side against Mansfield Town and Oldham Athletic, but went on loan to Bishop's Stortford during the 2022/23 season making 27 appearances for the Hertfordshire side helping them to the Isthmian Premier League title. Two of those 27 appearances actually came against Aveley in Stortford's 2-0 and 1-0 victory over us that season. In his 27 appearances at the heart of the defence, they kept an impressive 17 clean sheets.

Beadle joined Braintree Town on loan at the start of the 2023/24 season and made four appearances and scored against Maidstone United before then joining back on loan to Bishop's Stortford in the National North where Harry made 32 appearances.

THE TOUCHLINE

Danny, former Concord Rangers Manager in the National South guided the Beachboys to the FA Trophy final taking on Football League side Harrogate Town in May 2021.

Scopes also assisted the Cowley Brothers in Concord Rangers' rise from the Essex Senior League to the National South before coming first team manager in 2019.

Today's opponents are one of the few clubs that we have an unbeaten record against! Sadly this is definitely a case where stats can be misleading as we have just three wins and one draw from our four meetings!

Our last tussle was of course just this season when we visited the Millers in the league in November. In a tight game Calvin Brooks scored the only goal following a quick break. Our only other league encounters were last season when Aveley visited us first in November. On that Saturday afternoon the visitors were still riding high in 2nd place in the table and took the lead mid-way through the first half but the Terras rescued a point late on when a Goodship ball was turned into the Aveley net by their own player. For the return fixture in March the then on loan Linton was the difference with a crucial brace in a 2-0 victory.

The only other time we have locked horns to date was 22 years ago when we visited Essex for an FA Trophy 1st round proper tie. That season the Terras were into their fifth consecutive season in the Southern Premier following promotion. Conversely Aveley were plying their trade in the Isthmian div 1 north at that time, one step below.

In an eventful game at a “rainswept Millfield Road” the underdogs took the lead in the 13th minute through Curran and the hosts had chances to extend their lead before the game turned just before half-time with home player Stevens shown a straight red for dissent! Things went from bad to worse for Aveley just after the interval when Terras substitute Whiteman was brought down in the box with Lacey receiving his marching orders! Rawlinson stepped up to score from the spot against the nine men but the reduced side fought valiantly and held out until the 88th minute when two quick Terras strikes finished off the tie in front of a measly crowd of only 74!

It's been a long time since I've sat down to write a Matchday Begins: Early Starts and Preparation long-form post, but today felt like the right time to get back to it.

This season has been one of challenges, and as fans, you've felt the impact more than anyone. Before joining Weymouth, I'd never worked within a football club, and the experience has been an eye-opener. I've supported West Ham for most of my life—another team in claret and blue, also enduring a rollercoaster season—but being behind the scenes at a non-league club has shown me just how much goes into keeping a club like ours alive.

From the Monday Club volunteers, tirelessly maintaining our aging stadium, to our Kitman — currently side-lined due to health issues — who dedicates almost all his time to the club, to you, the fans, who remain the lifeblood of our finances. To put it into perspective, matchday revenue at Premier League level accounts for less than 5% of total income. At this level, without access to exact figures, I can confidently say it's a much larger proportion, especially given our club's model. Every ticket purchased, every pint bought, and every programme sold contributes to keeping this club going.

For most fans, matchday begins at 3 PM. For me, it starts at 7 AM.

As my alarm goes off, I lift my head from the pillow. Rain taps against the window. A folded Weymouth FC tracksuit sits at the foot of the bed, ready for the day. My wife is still fast asleep as I hear my son talking to himself in his cot next door. Before matchday duties take over, family life comes first—getting him up, settled with his morning milk, and posting the first matchday graphic by 7:30 AM.

Meanwhile, others are already at work. A message from the Kitman at 6:45 AM tells me he's at the club, preparing kits long before my alarm even sounded.

By 10:30 AM, after sorting childcare and making sure everything at home is in order, I'm in the car, radio on, heading to the stadium.

NON-LEAGUE

Arriving at the Club: The Work Begins

Pulling up at 11 AM, the stadium is already a hive of activity. Security staff are on-site, volunteers are setting up cones, checking barriers, and ensuring everything is in place. The pitch team completes its final checks, while inside the office, phones ring, emails fly in, and menus for players, staff, and sponsors are finalized—all before midday.

After quick hellos to the team, I make my way down to the changing rooms, where I share the Kitman's office on matchdays. The first order of business? Coffee. A weekly catch-up with Lloyd and 'Maddog' Joe follows, often spent debating football. They dream of Liverpool winning the league, while I'm just hoping West Ham signs a proper striker. It's a brief distraction from the work ahead, but soon enough, we're back to it—setting up matchday graphics, confirming pre- and post-match content, and liaising with the wider media team.

By noon, the first players arrive. Jordan and Charlie make the long journey from Enfield, while Bear arrives from the Island. The once-quiet changing room transforms into a buzzing hub of conversation. For all the structure and discipline of a matchday, it's easy to forget that these are players with lives beyond football. Unlike full-time professionals, they juggle jobs, families, and commitments outside the club.

The Final Build-Up: Last-Minute Preparations

Pre-match social media updates go live — stadium shots, player arrivals, and the exchange of team sheets, all embargoed until the industry-standard 2 PM release.

By 1:30 PM, the coaching staff holds their initial team talk. Outside, warm-ups begin, and I head onto the pitch, balancing media duties with practical tasks—collecting cones, counting footballs. Unlike the Premier League, where fresh match balls are readily available, every piece of equipment here matters. If something goes missing, it's a problem.

At 3 PM, after what already feels like a full workday, the game kicks off.

The Match: Capturing the Action

Pitchside, I capture the game alongside Mark, our photographer, while staying connected to the media team. There's no chance to switch off. Questions come in from various departments — announcers, media personnel working remotely — and need answering in real time.

By halftime, the score is posted, providing a brief window to discuss the first half with Maddog before repositioning for the second.

When the final whistle blows, there's no time to relax. Camera out, I film the players applauding the fans—an important moment, recognising those who turn up week in, week out. Then, it's straight into interviews. The Gaffer finishes his post-match debrief, and I capture his thoughts before heading back to the office to upload content.

Wrapping Up: A Long Day Draws to a Close

By 6:30 PM, as I sit in my car uploading the final videos, the bar is still buzzing, fans reliving the match over a drink. Players are heading home, but for Lloyd, the day isn't over—he's back in the plant room, starting the endless cycle of washing kits for the next game.

I finally head home, aiming to put my phone down by 8 PM. It's been a long day, but one that's done by choice.

The Reality of Non-League Football

Non-league football is the foundation of the sport we love. It's a gateway for players, coaches, and media staff to move up the ranks. It's built on dedication—by volunteers, staff, and fans alike. Football isn't a 90-minute business; it's a lifestyle. And while I may take a step back for now, I know I'll be back. Because once football hooks you, that's it.

Woods Words

It's sounded an even game at Farnborough last Saturday, strange to say that after a 3-0 defeat, but by all accounts that what it was.

Yes, we are rock bottom of the league, but we have not endured heavy defeats, most losses have been by narrow margins, but, ultimately, losses they are.

We just don't have enough about us going forward, the reasons for this you can debate until the cows come home, but, in my opinion we just don't have that "cutting edge" that everyone else has, we are easy to defend against, especially as we don't have any pace in behind.

That's all I will say on team matters because I am no expert, but having seen all home matches and putting the highlights of those matches together, far too many goalkeepers have left here having had to do very little.

To be honest it feels like our last season in the National League, where I was coming down to each game expecting to lose.

I have forgotten what it is like to rock up at home games with a realistic hope that we might win a game.

Football is at the end of the day an entertainment business, so we can only hope that a drop in level might bring some wins back here to the Bob Lucas Stadium.

My hope is that we won't be down there for a long time and by long I mean a decade or more as was the case the last time.

It won't be easy though, with some of the spending we are seeing in that league.

I say let the manager build his own team, with a full pre season and see how we go.

'till next time,

Up The Terras!

Weymouth FC Women

- Season Update

Written by James Spring

We're now just over halfway through our season, and currently sit 4th in the South West Regional Women's League Division 1 South, with 22 points. This is already an improvement on last seasons total of 19, which saw us finish 7th.

The league campaign started on 8th September with an emphatic 4-0 win at home to newly promoted Honiton Town – with the goals being scored by Annie Redding, Ellia Webb, Charlie Wilson and Emily Screen.

A week later we made the long trip down to Cornwall to face Sticker. A remarkable first half hat-trick from Emily Screen saw us take a 3-0 lead into the break. Sticker fought back with 2 early second half goals, but we were able to ride out the storm and came away with a 5-2 victory thanks to second half goals from Ellia Webb and Scarlet Paul.

Then it was a trip to north Devon to face Bideford, and we emerged with an emphatic 5-0 victory thanks to another hat-trick from Emily Screen, plus goals from Ruby Clark and Lucy Roberts.

We would then suffer our first defeat of the season, going down 3-1 at Saltash despite Zara Holmes' first goal for the club, but we bounced back a week later with a 4-1 home win over Bideford, in which Emily Screen bagged her third hat-trick of the season, and Ruby Clark also got on the scoresheet.

Next would come arguably our result of the season. We travelled to Weston-Super-Mare with a threadbare squad of just 12 players, some of whom were carrying niggles or recovering from illness. When we unfortunately lost Sarah Davis to a season ending injury in the first half, a difficult task was made even harder. But Kaydee Thornicroft gave us the lead, and through the second half the girls put in an unbelievable shift to grind out a 1-0 win, with numerous players having to play out of position.

A battling 3-1 loss at home to runaway leaders Plympton followed, before a hard fought 3-2 win at Honiton, thanks to a brace from Emily Screen and a birthday goal from Kaydee Thornicroft.

2024 was signed off with a 1-1 draw at home to Weston-Super-Mare thanks to an Annie Redding equaliser, before a frustrating spell which saw us go a whole month without having a game.

When we finally returned to action on 12th January, we faced an in form Yeovil side who proved too strong for us on the day and took the points with a 3-1 win.

©Ian Middlebrook

A week later we entered the Dorset Women's County Cup and ran out 11-1 winners against Dorset league side Dorchester Town. The goals were shared around with Emily Screen, Hannah Fowler, Emma Potter, Lucy Roberts, Kaydee Thornicroft, Ruby Clark, Ellia Webb, Charlie Wilson, and Holly Weaver-Coles all getting on the scoresheet.

Another couple of postponements followed before a hard fought 1-0 win at home to Feniton in our last game, thanks to Annie Redding.

- Upcoming Fixtures:

 2nd March – Helston (A)
 9th March – Sticker (H) KO 14:00

I'm Tired...

Ben Ashleford

I worry quite a lot about the state of our football club. I don't even mean that I have a fleeting moment or two of frustration and anxiety over our future. I mean that I have a horrible habit of finishing work, cooking dinner and then spending my evenings thinking constantly over our woes on and off the pitch.

There is very much an argument over whether or not I'm the most single man in the world or whether or not I need new hobbies. But there's no argument whatsoever that we, as a club, are in big, big trouble.

People far higher up the chain assure me that we are in no danger of liquidation or indeed, even administration. So, that's something. In terms of making the much sought after 'progress' we've heard so much about though, I think we're in big, big trouble. It's only my opinion of course, and I have no access to the work being done in the background.

The first massive blockade in front of us is very easily identified. Training. We have somehow - I'm told due to the wonderfully idiotic decision making by two previous boardroom leaders - only got a session for around 45 minutes per week. This is something discussed by Paul Maitland during the interview we did. I understand that it isn't through lack of trying to book another facility, it's purely down to availability, or lack there of.

This is a massive issue. My understanding is it has been this way for the best part of three seasons! Does anybody else think this plays a huge part in our constant struggles against the drop since returning to this division? Pub teams train more often than we do. It's genuinely embarrassing.

A lot of ground maintenance costs came up in this pre-season. It's eaten a fair chunk of our original budget. I'd like to question exactly how this came as a surprise? When the boilers go down suddenly and need replacing I can understand it. What I can't understand is how certain things were failed to be spotted prior to our ground grading? And I know we're not exactly flush with cash, but was there no maintenance slush fund to ease the pain? Clearly not, but is there one now? I'd guess not.

So let's look to next season. Assuming we will be in the Southern Premier league we will need to reduce admission prices and significantly reduce season ticket prices. Taking a quid off the entry price is nowhere near enough, although I suspect that is probably the plan. Should that happen I would prepare yourselves for sub 350 gates and another season struggling against the drop.

The position we're in hurts me. Perhaps that's on me, perhaps I need more in my life..... actually, just something else might help. I'm sorry to be so negative about things. But my prediction for next year is £17 tickets, sub 350 gates, less season ticket holders and a sub 15th place southern Premier league finish.

Please Weymouth FC,

I beg you.

Prove me wrong.

Weymouth in the Community

Weymouth Football Club and Weymouth in the Community are proud to welcome the children from Bridport Primary and Bincombe Valley School to today's match.

Weymouth Football Club and Weymouth in the Community are proud to welcome the children from Bridport Primary and Bincombe Valley School to today's match.

These young football enthusiasts will have the thrilling opportunity to be invited onto the pitch at half-time, where they will receive their very own Weymouth Football Club kit. They'll be wearing it proudly as they represent our football club in the next round of the Under 11's National League Cup.

Earlier this season, we invited all local primary schools to enter a local tournament held by the Football Club and Weymouth in the Community at Redlands on Thursday, the 5th of December. The event was a massive success and was organized and supported by key figures in our community, including Andy Yates (Weymouth in the Community Manager), Tom Bearwish (Weymouth Football Club Men's Captain), Alfie Ricardo (Weymouth Football Club Women's Assistant Manager), and Ralph Ricardo, Iain Stone & Kate Berry (Weymouth in the Community Directors).

The Mixed tournament winner was Bridport Primary School, and the Girls tournament winner was Bincombe Valley School. These schools have shown exceptional skill and teamwork, and now they progress to the regional tournament, to be held on Wednesday, the 5th of March at Huish Park. Here, they will represent Weymouth Football Club and face schools representing Yeovil Town, Bath City, Torquay United, Forest Green, and Truro City.

On behalf of all the players and staff at Weymouth Football Club, we extend our heartfelt congratulations and best wishes to both schools. We believe in your potential to make it all the way to the finals at Wembley. Good luck, and make us proud!
