FROM THE BOARD ROOM

Good evening and a warm welcome to our visitors from Weston-Super-Mare.

Our recent form has been good and has helped to restore some confidence into us all. Whether it is too late remains to be seen but I applaud the players for fighting and showing some real grit and determination.

It was great to see Kelson Pollard come on at St Albans have a real impact on the game, he has been patient and played a lot of games for the Under 23s, a bright future lies ahead for Kelson.

Also our thanks to Swindon for loaning us Dani Gonzales and Liam Hutt.

I hope in the coming weeks to offer a further update on some off the field things that hopefully will have a positive impact on the future. In a season where we have felt a lot of doom and gloom there will hopefully be some positive news as we head towards the conclusion of this season.

Thankyou for continued support, we simply can't do it without you.

Paul

MATCHDAY HOSPITALITY

FROM THE DUG OUT

I would like to welcome Weston-Super-Mare players, staff, club officials and fans down for probably one of their shorter trips.

I'm really pleased with the performances of the boys lately, there's been an upturn they are certainly fighting, and all we can do is concentrate on that going forward .

The fans have been exceptional for us and you can see the boys are trying and obviously we are down to our bare bones regarding a couple of players suspended and injured. We have got two new young boys in from Swindon Town which we thank Swindon for. Also we have Kelson and Will up from the under 23's which is something I want to do, if the young lads are good enough they will be involved and we will encourage them and keep going to the end of the season.

We'll keep fighting,

Enjoy the game.

FROM THE SA

PETE NASH

Good evening everyone and welcome back to The Bob Lucas Stadium for a game under the lights! I know I'm repeating myself, but I do love a game under the lights!

I would like to offer a warm Weymouth welcome to the officials, staff and players of Weston-Super-Mare to The Bob Lucas Stadium and wish them safe travels. We had two incredible games earlier in the season against tonight's opponents, one of which set us on our FA Trophy run, so let's hope for more of the same today. They were two thoroughly entertaining games against an in form team at that time, so tonight's encounter will be another tough one.

The season has rattled along and we are down to our last nine games, every one of which is now a cup final for us! Your support has been crucial and it will be even more so moving forward. We simply cannot function without you all, so no matter what, please stick with us. I would like to give a shout out to the travelling fans who have been fantastic for us all season long. The boost you give the lads on the road cannot be overemphasised, it really is so important, so thank you so much for what you do.

Our Women's team are going really well in their first season in the South West Regional Women's Football League, currently sitting in fourth place with seven wins from their 11 games played so far. Keep an eye out for their fixtures which you can find in today's programme. Remember that season tickets include entry to our Women's home matches, so come along and support them if you can and bring a friend.

As ever, thanks for reading. Get behind the lads and help them secure those precious three points. Stay well and stay safe and don't forget, you can help by playing the Claret and Blue Lottery or participating in the Boost The Budget! Best wishes to you all and thank you for your continued support.

KEEP AN EYE ON

Emlyn LEWIS

The powerful centre-back has spent the past 10 years with the Cardiff Met side, making countless appearances as they gained promotion to the Welsh top flight and became a stable side in the Cymru Leagues. He has also been capped four times by Wales C, captaining them on two occasions. Signed for Weston in May 2024.

James Waite

James progressed through the Cardiff City Academy and spent a period on loan with Hereford, before two successful spells on loan with Weston. He spent time with Waterford before departing Cardiff, featuring for Penybont in the Welsh top flight. Newport County then came calling, and after two-and-a-half years in the EFL, he joined the Seagulls permanently this summer.

THE SEAGULLS

Max HARRIS

Max came through the ranks at the likes of Hereford and Oxford United while spending time out on loan with the likes of Oxford City and AFC Totton.

He joined Cheltenham Town in 2021, before going out on loan to Redditch and Cinderford. The keeper has spent the past four seasons on loan with the Seagulls.

THE TOUCHLINE

A playing career that included spells with Salisbury FC, Weston, Bath City and Forest Green Rovers, Scott spent a spell in charge during the 2016-2017 season before moving full-time as Head of Academy at Forest Green.

Following his departure from FGR, he returned to Weston in the summer of 2019 and oversaw our successful 2022-2023 league win.

GREAT PLACES TO PLAY

FROM THE TERRACES

THOMAS TAYLOR

Good evening one and all. A warm welcome to those who have made the trip down from Weston-Super-Mare this evening. We hope you enjoy your visit to the Bob Lucas Stadium (hopefully without winning) and have a safe journey back to the North Somerset coast.

With 9 games to go we are somehow still have our own destiny in hands. Four games unbeaten and some spirited performances of late. Especially last time out at home against Hornchurch. The lads showed a spirit that has been lacking sadly too often this season. If that was a game earlier in the season we would've capitulated. But the morale and resilience these players have shown the last 4 games have been admirable. It was one the rare occasions last time out at home where I left the ground disappointed that we didn't take all 3 points against one of the form sides in the division. Which compared to a month ago is a turn around. Credit to Warren and the players for this.

Our opponents this evening have very different priorities than ourselves. The Seagulls have had a very good second season back in the National League South. Although their recent form of no wins in the last 3 isn't great they will be in my opinion in the mix for the playoffs come the end of the season.

If there is one thing that might work in our favour is our recent form against the Seagulls. We are unbeaten since their return to the National League South. Last time out at the Woodspring Stadium a Jaidon Bartolo rocket gave us a deserved lead before ultimately being pegged back to a 1-1 draw which somewhat flattered our opponents this evening. Last time at home against Weston was new years day last year I the torrential rain which produced an entertaining 3-3 draw with Ezio Touray scoring the leveller.

Let's hope we can continue to be the Seagull's bogey team and continue this unbeaten run.

Cmon you Terras

Thomas

GOALS – Own Goal, Bak

Today marks the third meeting this season between these sides and the Terras will be hoping to make it an unbeaten campaign against The Seagulls following to fruitful visits to the pier-based resort. Our first trip was in November when a Bartolo screamer helped to secure a league point but we did even better 11 days later in the FA Trophy securing a 3-2 win!

Before this campaign our most recent tussles against the seagulls were a festive treat last season. The Boxing Day fixture at the Bob Lucas was a see-saw affair, the Terras edging a 5-goal-thriller but more excitement was to come in the return visit to Somerset on New Year's Day when Weymouth came back from two goals down not once but twice to secure a 3-3 draw on the banks of the Severn Channel!

Our most immediate pairing before last season was a pre-season friendly in the summer of '22. At the time we were preparing for life back in the Conf. South following relegation and Weston were preparing for another assault at promotion to the same division, a feat they would ultimately achieve.

On that day the hosts started brightly and took the lead before the Terras found their feet to score five without reply in a flattering scoreline.

Going back in time we discover that we also faced each other in the league in the 09/10 conference south campaign. Looking further back we had more joy against the seaiders with two long unbeaten streaks of 9 and 10 games, punctuated by sporadic losses. From '94 to '07 Weston were regular foes in the southern league (and then the conference south following its inception in '04). During this period we also played two friendlies and were drawn together in the FA Cup in 05/06, Weymouth progressing after a replay. Before the 1990s our clashes are more spaced out, including another victorious FA Cup tie in '88. In the FA Trophy in 1982 the seagulls also took us to a replay before we finally progressed. Going back in time again there is a gap of almost 70 years before we see Weston mentioned again – a four season stint facing each other in the Western league from 1910/11.

Woods Words

A battling point at St Albans wasn't really enough, but it is better than coming away with another undeserved defeat.

A good first half again failed to yield an advantage and you just knew that the opposition would score in the second half.

That duly happened, but a foul on late substitute Pollard gave Jake McCarthy the chance to find the net again from the spot.

I am sure that must have deflated everyone connected with St Albans, having been seconds away from a vital win against a fellow relegation candidate.

I do think though that they will stay up, they have a good manager now in Ian Culverhouse and I think he will get them the points they need to remain in the National League South.

I think it will be close though, as Enfield Town have given themselves a chance. Salisbury are just out of it for now, but if they don't pick up a bit they could yet be dragged into it.

Welling are the ones who have fell from relative safety to being bang in trouble. Will those two points St Albans dropped against us be crucial come the final reckoning?

Fine margins. That is what has cost us this season.

We have not been well beaten on many occasions, but we have lost a lot of games by a single goal and failed to find the net too many times.

Bath and ourselves are the two lowest scorers in the division, but we have 25 points and Bath are on 42.

It sounds obvious, but it shows what a difference winning games makes.

As I mentioned in my last page, we seem to be a more competitive unit since we reduced the size of the squad, hopefully that will continue until the end of the season, it's just a shame the season wasn't beginning now.

If we could have turned those draws we have got recently into wins we could have had a real chance of pulling off another escape.

'till next time,
Up The Terras!

Terras Women MATCH REPORT

Weymouth Women 3 - Sticker AFC 1

Written by James Spring

South West Regional Women's League
Division 1 South (09/03/25)

Weymouth 3

Sticker AFC 1

After a disjointed couple of weeks which included an abandonment and a postponement, Weymouth returned to home comforts in style with victory over Sticker AFC at a sun drenched Bob Lucas Stadium.

Weymouth had to shuffle their pack with regular first team players Standen, Roberts, Paul, Thorncroft and Billing all unavailable. Sofia O'Connell, Laura Luxton and Dionne Hopkins all started from the development team, with Alara Ciftlik and Freya Godhew making their first team debuts off the bench, the latter having impressed in the youth set up.

Both sides started well and created early chances. Weymouth had their first on 9 minutes when Clark played a through-ball for Redding, but the Sticker goalkeeper was quickly off her line to block Redding's shot.

Redding was thwarted by the keeper again a minute later when her shot from Screen's lay-off was well held, before Sticker saw a shot from long range go comfortably wide.

On 14 minutes, Ellie Porter's deflected free kick caused panic in the Sticker penalty area, and a couple of efforts on goal were blocked before the visitors scrambled it to safety.

Screen then fired narrowly wide on 23 minutes after Webb's cross deflected into her path, but 12 minutes later the Terras' top scorer had her goal.

Hannah Fowler did well to dribble around a couple of challenges and find Screen on the edge of the box. The striker did well to get a shot away being off balance, and although the goalkeeper got a glove to it, it wasn't enough and the ball rolled over the line for 1-0.

4 minutes later Fowler created herself some room and attempted a spectacular effort from distance which the goalkeeper did well to catch.

Screen went close again on 44 minutes - firing wide after being played through by Wilson. But in first half added time, she would double her and Weymouth's tally for the afternoon, and in some style.

A fantastic move saw Wilson control a throw-in and flick it on for Redding, who played an absolutely sublime cross-field pass for Screen on the edge of the box, and she calmly lobbed it over the goalkeeper to send Weymouth into the break 2-0 up.

Weymouth continued to do most of the pressing at the start of the second half. On 50 minutes, Screen got to the by-line and pulled it back for Wilson who did well to create space for a shot, but fired wide of the mark.

Screen then came agonisingly close to yet another hat-trick when Clark drove forwards and laid it off for the striker whose first time shot grazed the top of the crossbar.

Weymouth would only have to wait another couple of minutes to get their third goal though. It came from another brilliant driving run from Clark. Sticker couldn't get near her, and she split the defence and found Wilson who fired into the bottom corner to make it 3-0.

To Sticker's credit, they never threw in the towel, and on the hour mark Issy Heybourne was alert to make a sublime save to tip a curling strike from range just over the bar when it looked destined for the top corner.

The visitors then spurned a glorious chance on 64 minutes when a corner evaded everyone and was fired over in front of an open goal at the back post.

But a minute later, Sticker did get on the scoresheet with a sensational dipping shot from some 30 yards which gave Heybourne no chance.

Fowler went close to restoring the 3 goal cushion for Weymouth when she curled a shot narrowly wide of the post from the edge of the box, before Wilson was teed up by Screen and fired an effort inches wide.

Redding would then warm the goalkeeper's palms with a stinging effort from an acute angle.

With 5 minutes remaining, Sticker put together their best move of the match as some slick one touch passing opened up the Terras' defence and their striker was clean through on goal, but Heybourne was on hand to make a crucial save to maintain the 2 goal cushion, which allowed Weymouth to see out the final few minutes.

An 8th win of the season means Weymouth remain 4th in the table, with 3 games in hand on 3rd placed Yeovil Town.

This was also an important confidence boost going into the biggest game of the season next Sunday, when premier division side Sherborne Town visit the BLS in the semi finals of the county cup. Kick off is 2pm, and it'd be great to see a big home crowd to try and roar the Terras into the final!

Porter, Luxton, Fowler. Subs: Wilson,

Our Final Fight

Ben Ashleford

With nine games left to play, the last thing anybody wants to do would be to reflect on the season.

I remember being really excited for the year ahead back in August. It seems so long ago now. There haven't been many highs it has to be said. But there have actually been a few.

We've played today's opponents twice away from home and haven't lost. We beat the vile lot from up the road, away. We beat Dorking away. We pushed Forest Green all the way in the cup. A team looking a fairly solid bet for a football league return.

Going in to tonight's fixture we are unbeaten in 4. OK, three draws, but there are signs that we can improve vastly. So I want to inject a bit of optimism into our long suffering football club. And a win tonight would help with that, massively.

Everybody earmarked St Albans on Saturday as a must win game and everybody, was probably right. The lads should have been out of sight by half time and Mal Linton looked like he was being kept onside by the left back in the first half. If his goal stands, we win the game in my opinion. Alas, tight calls and fine margins.

I don't know what the future holds, but I do know that these players aren't going down with a whimper.
