FROM THE BOARD ROOM

Today marks our final game of the season and our farewell to the National League South. When I joined the club we were a mid table side in the Southern Premier League and not really looking like doing much more. Since then it was always my burning desire to see us get on a forward trajectory which we did and the journey to the National League was not only incredible but at times the stuff of dreams. Today the realisation really hits home that we are going to need to get the forward momentum going again. The disappointment for us all is we is it feels like going back to the beginning, then a look around the Southern League and I take pride in the fact that whilst we have suffered these last few years, at least we have experienced the top level of Non League football while some of the teams we visit next season will be same as when we were last in the league. Football is full of ups and downs and we have certainly ridden that rollercoaster. We must not feel sorry for ourselves and we must be ready to roll up our sleeves and prepare for a scrap, next season we will be there to be shot at and we must be ready for that, our stance for me is clear we must be aggressive and on the front foot.

Before signing off for the season it would be remiss of me not to acknowledge those that have given so much time and energy behind the scenes and who without we simply would not function. Thank you to all our volunteers, such an integral part of non-league and what makes it special. To those that raise money on our behalf, donate, sponsor again we thank you and greatly appreciate your support, we will need it now more than ever. The footballing and non-footballing staff who always do more than is expected and keep us all safe at the games thankyou. The Board and I face a challenging summer but be rest assured we will be tackling it head on.

I would like to remind you about Thomo's Testimonial game on the 17th May, if you can make it please do, Ben has decided that the money raised on that day will go to Team Torri, a charity supporting children with cancer. I think Ben's gesture sums up his playing style, a fighter, who puts the needs of the team before his.

My final thankyou is to you, the supporters. It's been a tough few seasons, more disappointments than highs, following Weymouth has never been straightforward but when it's in your blood you have to keep believing the highs are around the corner. Enjoy your summer, recover yourself and get ready for the new season.

FROM THE DUG OUT

I would like to welcome Chelmsford's players, Board, fans and staff to the last game of the season to Weymouth and wish them a safe return to Essex.

On the last game I would just like to thank our Board, fans and everyone at the club associated with Weymouth, it's been a long hard season. It was not the season we wanted, but unfortunately we know where we are. We have come down and it's a progression now to move forward.

Looking forward to the game today and I want to thank everyone since my time here, I'm loving it and the fans have been absolutely outstanding, and hopefully we can put on a great performance to finish the season strong and move forward for next Season.

FROM THE SA

PETE NASH

Good afternoon to you all. I would like to offer a warm Weymouth welcome to officials, staff and players of Chelmsford City, hope they enjoy their brief stay at The Bob Lucas Stadium and wish them safe travels.

The curtain comes down today on what has to be acknowledged, has been a disappointing campaign. As we reflect on the past nine months, there will be endless soul searching about the if butts and maybes, but the one inescapable fact will be, come the final whistle, the season will be in the past and we have to look forward to the future. All our energies will be focused on getting the stadium, pitch and squad ready for, what will no doubt be, another tough campaign. But before then, you all have a summer break to enjoy! Hopefully when we all reconvene in July for pre-season, we will see some familiar faces lining up once more in the famous claret and blue of the Terras!

Thank you to all of our fantastic volunteers for your amazing endeavours throughout the season, without your help we simply wouldn't be able to function. You have all been amazing once again.

After the final whistle, once the players have changed, we will have the end of season presentations in the Wessex Lounge. We will also be presenting Hall of Fame inductee Alan Beer with his award, as he was unable to attend the event earlier this year..

Thank you for your support and for sticking with us. Please enjoy the game today and remember to cheer the lads on to the final whistle. Have a safe and enjoyable break and we will see you all back here in a few months time. Best wishes to you all.

Pete

INTRODUCING OUR MATCH SPONSOR

HARMONY HOUSE EVENTS

As proud supporters of The Terras, all of us at Harmony House Events are thrilled to stand beside the club through every challenge and triumph. We're confident that next season holds great promise, and we're looking forward to seeing Weymouth bounce back stronger than ever. Here's to a successful season ahead and a continued partnership built on pride, perseverance, and shared success.

INTRODUCING OUR MAN OF THE MATCH SPONSOR

Oily's Breakfast Club, what's it all about?

We started with our first vehicles meeting way back in December 2022 to raise much needed funds for the football club and wondered if anyone would come.

Well, thankfully, they did, and we have now grown into one of the largest meets in the southwest with Oily's coming from as far as London and Bristol.

But it's not all about raising money for the club with Oily's donating to many local charities and good causes.

Our sponsored player, Jake McCarthy, is on ten goals as I write this with ten pounds going to a charity of Jake's choice for every goal scored this season.

And let's not forget Ben Thompson's testimonial, where we are sponsoring the first race of the evenings entertainment. Thanks to all who have come along and supported Oily's and not forgetting my wonderful Oily volunteers who give up their time.

Ben Ashleford

Well here we are again. The end of another season of memories. Most of the footballing memories not great, granted. But on the road and at the Bob Lucas Stadium I have some stories that will make me laugh for a long time and I've met some new friends.

The football almost becomes secondary at times. Especially, in my case up until December when I was drafted back in to commentate. You work all week, and come Saturday you travel to watch your favourite club. The people that travel, and suffer with you week in, week out, become friends. During some seasons when there's a hectic schedule you see them more than some of your immediate family! So despite this particular season being slow, hard slog, I'm always sad when one comes to a close.

The summer will at least give me a chance to recharge the batteries. I've mentioned a few times my desire to improve our commentary service and, once the season is over, I can sit and work on what I want to achieve. I have some really potentially good ideas to improve our output and, without giving any ideas away before they can be tested, I want to give listeners more options for tuning in.

To tell you the truth, I think the commentary that we provide is somewhat undervalued. Not necessarily in terms of appreciation, I think our efforts are truly appreciated. But I don't think the value of such a service, especially if we can improve the quality, is fully understood. Perhaps that's just a misunderstanding on part. It sure does make me want to prove people wrong though.

KEEP AN EYE ON

Kane CRICHLLOW

23-year-old Kane Crichlow joins the Clarets after a season in the National League North with Bishops Cleeve. The Bermudian midfielder holds a very good international record, having scored 7 goals in 11 appearances for his nation. His footballing career started at AFC Wimbledon before he moved to Watford. He stayed there for 2 years, making his professional debut in the EFL Cup for the Hornets. A trip to Greece was next, before he played for Stortford last season. Most notably, Kane scored 5 goals in 1 game as Stortford thrashed Aldershot 6-1 in the FA Trophy.

Freddie HOCKEY

After joining the Chelmsford City Academy following a spell with Colchester United, Freddie has gone on to establish himself as a regular fixture in the club's first team set-up.

Hockey scored his first National League South goal in March 2023 against Worthing and capped off an impressive 22-23 campaign by signing a multi-year deal with the club.

In the 2023-24 season, Hockey continued his development as a dependable first team player by scoring seven goals in 32 National League South appearances. Hockey's haul of goals included a memorable brace against Bath City in December 2023, which sealed a dramatic comeback win for Robbie Simpson's 10-men Clarets side.

THE CLARETS

Ted COLLINS

Ted Collins (GK) – Ted Collins joined the Clarets in June 2024, after coming through Colchester United's academy. The Colchester-born keeper made his first team debut at just 19, coming on in a 1-1 draw with Swindon Town in January 2022. He has also picked up experience out on loan with sides such as Holland, Potters Bar and Maldon & Tiptree. Since his most recent loan spell at Potters Bar, Ted had been named among the Colchester United substitutes on a handful of occasions.

THE TOUCHLINE

Player/Manager Robbie signed for City in August 2019 after leaving MK Dons. He has had a fruitful career in the Football League, featuring for the likes of Cambridge United, Coventry City, Huddersfield Town and Exeter City. Throughout his career he has also featured for Brentford, Oldham Athletic, Leyton Orient, Cambridge United for a second spell and most recently MK Dons, whom he helped gain promotion back to League One last season. He was appointed as Interim Manager late January 2020 following Rod Stringer's departure. After going unbeaten in 4 from mid-February, without losing at home, "Simmo" was appointed as the Club's new permanent First Team Manager in March 2020.

Woods Words

Finally we are able to say goodbye to a very disappointing season.

The return of Mark Moseley was hoped to bring some good times again, not promotions maybe, but good times. It ended up with relegation, which realistically has been the cards since in my view around October.

Unfortunately by the time the change was made far too much damage had already been done, including a disastrous start to the campaign with seven straight losses. Any team that starts like that is up against it from the off.

The hoped for reinforcements player wise didn't materialise and scoring goals was a major issue.

I am a great believer in the league table doesn't lie, but I do feel if we had made the change earlier, we would have had at least half a chance of staying up. Too late now though and a five year cycle of the Southern League to the National League and back again is complete.

Don't get me wrong, I am sure no one envisaged when we went up to National League South, that we would be going straight up again to the National League proper. I know everyone says we weren't ready for it and I agree the way the club is structured we weren't.

But you can't choose when you get promotion in football and most of us wanted to have a crack at those playoffs, what an outcry there would have been if we had declined to take part. All of that happened during that strange period of Covid.

Going forward you have to wonder if we will be ready even for the National League South in the future.

One look at the top of the table and I don't know, but I don't think I would be far off in guessing that the entire top seven are most likely the clubs with the biggest budgets in the league. Of that seven, those clubs either have a large fanbase, or someone or something that is bankrolling the playing budget.

The National League South is now becoming another National League proper, where you need to be full time and/or bankrolled to compete.

Yeovil won it a year ago, but even with their resources it cost them a fortune. Even the Southern League has teams with big budgets, how much lower do you have to go to be successful by living within your means?

Woods Words

Non league used to be a sanctuary for fans to go to when priced out and fed up with the crazy world of the Premier League and to a slightly lesser extent the EFL.

But it is getting more and more difficult to make the distinction between the professional game and non league. What do we consider to be “non league” these days?

The National League obviously like the fact that their competition has got more professional and of course gets more publicity, mainly though the relegation of established EFL clubs into the division.

But this has exasperated the problem, with small clubs trying to keep up with them resource wise.

In our time in the National League proper, we were hardly ever covered by BT Sport, when we were covered we were looked upon only as the opposition for one of the “favoured” clubs, either a former league team or a big spending side.

Even in the last couple of seasons with National League TV and now DAZN, we have hardly featured, unless again we happen to be playing one of the big clubs.

It's all about how many people are going to watch it and I appreciate that, but as a fan I do feel there is a two tier approach to clubs.

So where do we go from here? Will the bankrolling of clubs continue or not?

If so, we may have to get used to the fact that the Southern League is now our limit.

Hopefully we can find a way to compete at least at National League South level as I believe that's our level.

I am under no illusions as to how hard the Southern League will be next season though and remember it took us a decade to get out of it the last time.

All that is left to say now is enjoy the summer and let's hope for a better season next season, being in or around the relegation zone for around five years is wearing, even for the most fanatical of fans!

‘till next time,

Up The Terras!

First Team - Plympton vs Weymouth Women

South West Regional Women's League Division 1 South (13/04/25)

Weymouth were left frustrated again as another strong performance against one of the league's title contenders went unrewarded, as they were edged out 2-1 at Plympton.

The Terras were missing Annie Redding, Charlie Wilson, Gracie Billing, Scarlet Paul, Katie Sadler, Jody Sapsford, Tegan Standen, and Zara Holmes through various reasons, which meant opportunities again for youngsters Freya Goodhew, Chloe Masters, Alara Ciftlik, and Eveline Scragg.

An uphill task was made harder when the Terras fell behind after just 7 minutes. The hosts were awarded a seemingly soft free kick on the edge of the box. Issy Heybourne made a good initial save, but the Terras' defence failed to react, and Finnegan was first to the loose ball to prod home the rebound for 1-0.

The home side worked Heybourne again 4 minutes later, with the Terras' stopper blocking a shot with her leg, before the rebound was fired over the bar.

Weymouth had their first chance after 17 minutes, when Lucy Roberts' corner caused panic in the area, and the ball bounced around before eventually being stabbed wide by Porter.

Heybourne continued to thwart the home side on the half hour mark - getting a strong wrist to a stinging shot which left her needing treatment, but she was able to continue.

Weymouth then had their best chance of the first half on 37 minutes. Hannah Fowler found Ellia Webb in space on the right flank, and she drove down the line before sending a devilish ball into the box which Screen fired wide.

At the other end, Heybourne ensured Weymouth went into the interval just the 1 goal down - holding onto a free kick from around 25 yards, and then pulling off a terrific diving save to her right, after Plympton's striker showed great skill to spin inside the box and make herself room for a shot on the penalty spot.

Weymouth began the second half on the front foot, and on 51 minutes they found an equaliser. Youngster Freya Goodhew showed great tenacity to chase down a long ball from Roberts and pressured a defender into a mistake. The ball ended up bouncing off the back of the defenders leg into the path of Screen, and the Terras' tallismatic striker kept her composure and found the far corner from around 10 yards out.

The home side then went close with an attempted chip shot which landed on the roof of the net on the hour mark, before Weymouth went close to turning the game on its head 2 minutes later.

Goodhew was causing the home defence plenty of headaches, and on 62 minutes she nearly had her first senior goal, as she raced onto Roberts' ball down the right flank, and managed to get away from a defender. She drove towards the edge of the box and unleashed a powerful shot which the home keeper did well to tip around the post for a corner.

Webb's resulting corner was then fired agonisingly wide by Screen, as Weymouth continued to have a strong spell.

Porter was then on hand to make a crucial block at the other end, but on 67 minutes the home side retook the lead, as Rogers turned inside Masters on the edge of the box and fired in off the post.

Weymouth's head didn't drop and the game became very stretched in the final quarter of an hour, with both sides creating chances. Scragg worked the home goalkeeper on 81 minutes, and shortly after that came Weymouth's best chance of an equaliser, when a cross from the right wing just evaded both Screen and Scragg in the box, and the home side managed to clear the danger.

The Terras threw everything at it in the dying minutes but the home side's defence stood firm, and managed to see it out for a crucial 3 points in their fight for the title.

Bitter disappointment at the defeat for the Terras, as their performance really warranted more, but Plympton did what title winning sides often do - found a way to get the job done.

There was some success for the club on Sunday though, as the development team made it 4 games unbeaten, picking up a hard fought 1-0 win away to Bournemouth Electric, thanks to a Sadie Osborne goal.

Weymouth's next game is in 2 weeks' time, away to Yeovil Town, at Huish Park.

Terras starting XI:
Heybourne, Potter,
Clark, Fower, Screen,
Masters, Porter,
Roberts, Goodhew,
Webb, Thornicroft.

We have played against our Essex visitors many, many times of the years since our first meeting in 1948 and today marks match no.83 v the Essex outfit but the last for Claret's manager Robbie Simpson who is stepping away from football after this game.

Our last meeting was Feeney's first as he marked his debut game in the Terras hotseat with a 0-0 draw in Essex just before Christmas. Last season we visited Chelmsford back in February when a single goal for the hosts meant we travelled home empty handed. Earlier in the campaign the Clarets also took all three points with a 3-0 victory. Our next most recent tussle was midway through 2022/23 when this team visited in January. On that occasion an Ash leveller just before the break ended up being sandwiched by Chelmsford goals in a 1-2 loss. Our trip east in the league was back in our 4th game of that season in August. It was our first away fixture on a very warm day but we failed to bring any points back west in a 3-1 loss.

Gradually looking further back, the two teams clashed in 2019. That meeting was also in August and marked our first win in five games against them in a 4-1 Conference South victory. Chelmsford took the lead that day but a blistering 14-minute hat-trick from McQuoid took the game from the away side.

We first played against Chelmsford in 1948 in the 1st round proper of the FA Cup at home. 8,590 watched that game, our 6th highest home attendance in our history! We won 2-1 and our reward was a 2nd round tie against some small team near Sherborne who were sadly the cup victors in the next round! The vast majority of the 70+ games were in the Southern League as regular league rivals in the 1950's, 60's & 70's with both teams often in the top part of the table. In fact, we would pip the Clarets to the prize in 1965/66 but our opponents had their day in the sun just two seasons later and again in 1971/72.

Played for both teams...a selection...

Dickie Dowsett, Aaron Drewe, Ross Fitzsimmons, Ron Fogg,
Jordan Greenidge, Neil Housley, Luke Jenkins, Danny Potter,
Stephen Reed & Sean Shields.

FROM THE TERRACES

THOMAS TAYLOR

Good afternoon all for the last time this season here at the Bob Lucas Stadium. First, a very warm welcome to those who have made the very long journey down from the only place in England named after Julius Caesar the city of Chelmsford. We all hope you enjoy your visit to the sunny south coast this afternoon and have a safe journey back home to the once (but very brief) former capital of England.

So, after what has been a season to forget we arrive at the final game of the season. Last Friday's game against Salisbury summed up our season in a nutshell. Great in small parts but throwing games away with poor mistakes. We could have quite easily won that game about 8-0 but somehow only ended up with a point. If there has been any highlights for me personally it would be the away win at Dorking which was one of the best away wins and experiences I have had watching us. For others it will be the away win at the "slime" but having not being there it will be Dorking away for me.

Our final opponents this season have had an indifferent season by their own recent standards. The Clarets finished second in the table last season missing out on the title by 11 points. Then succumbing to the eventual play off winners Braintree Town in the play off semi-finals. The Clarets will be hoping to put this season (like us) behind them and push back up the table to be up amongst the promotion contenders next season. We wish them well next season and hopefully face them again in the not so near future.

As we wave goodbye to the National League South lets go out with a final win of the season to give us all a smile as leave the Bob Lucas until next season. Hopefully, this time next year I will be writing to you all about our promotion back to the Vanarama National League South.

Let us get behind Warren and the boys for one last time this season.

C'mon you Terras!
