FROM THE BOARD ROOM

A lot has changed since our last home game, and the most important thing is this: we now have Steve. We are where we are, but there's a new sense of purpose and direction. Over the past week he's worked tirelessly with the players and the necessary recruitment. Today we hope to start seeing the results of that hard work on the pitch. Let's make today the moment that signals the turning point we've all been waiting for.

But it's important to remember that today is about more than what happens on the pitch. We will get there, even if it's not always as quick or easy as we would like. Our future is bigger than ninety minutes of football. It's built on the people who give their time, passion, and energy to this club. To all our volunteers who work so hard behind the scenes—thank you. You are the heartbeat of this club. And to those who want to be part of our journey, we encourage you to join us then together we move forward as a club

Ralph

FROM THE DUG OUT

Good afternoon and welcome everyone this afternoon's game against Hanwell. To say this week has been a tumultuous one is probably an understatement, but then I've never really known this club do anything by halves.

Before we get onto the football I would like to take the opportunity to thank everybody around the club who have made me feel so welcome, to the people who wished me well (I didn't think some of them even liked me), seriously though it really has been great to be back. Unfortunately for me the feel good factor didn't last very long as we were bounced out the FA Cup on Saturday to a team who I thought would give us problems after watching them the previous Monday.

From walking into the dressing room and sampling the atmosphere to looking at the players in the way they behaved towards each other it all felt a little strange. After watching Weymouth in a couple of games live and also on my phone, I can't say I was totally surprised at how the game panned out. Two individual errors and at times some really poor defending meant every time we got a foot hold in the game we then gave that up in a really soft manner.

So much so, all I remember are players saying that every week this happens and I have to say even from my perspective there was an air of inevitability about it.

Certainly doesn't need me to tell you that there's a lot of work to be done to start changing things around. As the last 4-5 years have seen a downward spiral in the club's fortunes and it's my job to try and start turning things around as quickly as possible, which has already started, and it's no slight on the place but we're a little top heavy in some positions and thin on the ground in others. In every football club the books have to be balanced.

What I'm looking for today it's not necessarily the result. I know that sounds ridiculous from a football manager but a performance that gives us somewhere to start and then we'll work through from there.

A huge thank you to everybody who's turned up and hopefully this can be the start of a new era.

CONTRIBUTING TOWARDS A BETTER
WEYMOUTH

We're pleased to announce the return of our "Boost the Budget" campaign for the upcoming season!

Thanks to your backing last time, the campaign made a real impact — and we're excited to build on that momentum. Your support plays a vital role in helping us strengthen the squad and continue pushing forward both on and off the pitch. This initiative is a fantastic way for fans to directly contribute to the club's ambitions, and we'd love for you to be part of it once again. Every contribution, big or small, makes a difference.

FROM THE SA PETE NASH

Good afternoon to you all and welcome back to the Bob Lucas Stadium. I would like to offer a warm welcome to the officials, staff and players of Hanwell Town, hope they enjoy their brief stay with us and wish them safe travels.

It is an understatement to say a lot has happened since my last notes! Circumstances were such that I was away out of the country on a family holiday, and our vice chairman Ade was away visiting family! So not great timing, but such is life. I need to place on record for you all, despite our dislocation from events, your Supporters Association played a very active and key role in ensuring there was no delay in appointing a managerial successor. We will be able to update you with slightly more detail at our upcoming AGM next month, but don't let anyone tell you we had no involvement, quite the contrary was the case, being right at the forefront of driving the changes needed.

I know a lot of you will still be in shock at Paul Maitland's resignation. It should not be underestimated what a monumental task it is to be at the helm of this football club. The constant attention you get these days, mainly via social media, is relentless and it takes its toll. Remember, Paul came in at a time of great turmoil in the club, and was pivotal in steering us to calmer waters. We should all be truly grateful for what Paul did for us over his long association with the club and he will always be regarded in the highest esteem by all of us who worked with him during his time here. Please, accept Paul's decision with good grace, and join me in giving heartfelt thanks to his amazing service to this great football club. It may be the end of this chapter for Paul and Weymouth FC, but not the end of the story.

Ralph Ricardo has been named as our new interim chairman, and he needs no introduction to the majority of you. The SA are fully supportive of Ralph's appointment and we will be announcing plans to support both Ralph and

STEVE CLARIDGE'S FIGHTBACK FUND

A new chapter begins for Weymouth Football Club. With Steve Claridge taking charge as first team manager, we have a fresh opportunity to build on our foundations and push forward with renewed ambition.

The early weeks of this season brought unexpected changes, but now we look ahead with belief and determination. Steve's appointment gives us the chance to strengthen our squad in ways we had not originally planned, and that is where the Terras community comes in.

Our club is still on solid financial ground, which means any extra funds we can raise will go directly toward giving Steve the flexibility he needs. Whether it is adding depth to the squad, bringing in that crucial signing, or simply having options when opportunities arise - every pound helps turn possibilities into reality.

This is about more than just transfers. It is about backing our manager from day one, showing our player's they have the support of an entire community, and proving that when Weymouth needs to step up, we deliver. The Fightback Fund is not about money - it is about momentum, belief, and the kind of collective energy that can transform a season.

Every donation, whether it is £5 or £500, goes straight into the playing budget. No administration costs, no deductions - just direct investment in the team we all want to see succeed.

How to donate:

- Bank transfer: Weymouth Football Club Supporters Association Santander
Sort Code: 09-01-55
Account No: 44150902
Quote reference: SCFF
- Online via the club shop
- In person: Bring your donation to the club shop on Saturday

Remember, you can continue to support or consider helping by playing the Claret & Blue Lottery. With three cash prizes each month - top prize of £255 a month, which will increase with each new participant (Terms & Conditions apply so please check on the website for these).

The money raised, after deduction of prize money, goes to the playing budget.

- Claret & Blue Lottery link: <https://www.wfcsa.co.uk/claret-blue-lottery/>

This is our moment to show what the Terras community is capable of. We are backing Steve, we are backing our team, and together, we are moving forward.

Thank you for your continued support.

Weymouth Football Club Supporters Association
Board of Directors

FROM THE SA PETE NASH

Steve in the coming days and weeks, so watch this space.

We must thank Warren Feeney for his time at The Terras, unfortunately results were not what was required and it was a purely footballing decision to part ways. We wish Warren all the very best for the future.

I hope you can all agree the appointment of Steve Claridge is the right one at this moment in time. Steve is really enthusiastic for another crack in the hot seat here, and this is just what we need. Everyone who cares passionately about The Terras needs to give Steve their full backing. We need all the help and support we can garner at this time to give Steve the tools to get us moving in the right direction.

We will endeavour to keep you updated with events as they unfold further, so keep an eye across our social media. If you want to get in touch, please do so via enquiries@wfcsa.co.uk

Thank you all for your continued support, it really is appreciated, particularly in these difficult times.

Modern Football is ****!

Ben Ashleford

The Premier League is a Disease.

Liverpool Football Club, the reigning champions of England have just spent nearly £450 million pounds on new players. Yes, granted, they sold a few as well, but that figure is pure madness. Other teams have spent large amounts of cash as well, Manchester United, Arsenal, Chelsea have all spent big this summer while Manchester City, still under investigation for breaking financial rules that might as well not exist, have brought in two goalkeepers amongst other players to bolster their already impressive squad.

How to the long time supporters of these clubs get rewarded for their clubs spending? Why, by having their match day ticket prices increased spectacularly, by essentially being moved aside in favour of overseas visitors willing to spend so much more money in the club megastores than your 'legacy' fans.

If you are lucky enough to get a ticket to a home game and you set off on the inevitable 5 or 6 hour journey, how do you get rewarded?

Well that's nice and simple.

Your reward for spending an extortionate amount of a match ticket, your travel expenses, food and drink and sometimes even a night in a hotel, is boredom.

You get to watch a sterilised game of what used to be football, at a stupid time of the day to accommodate the TV cameras. During the game, if your team scores, don't celebrate, because if you're supporting somebody like Fulham and they score away at say, Chelsea, you can't celebrate because some no mark idiot, watching a monitor in slow motion 200 miles away will run that footage back as far as possible and rule it out for..... reasons.

Modern Football is ****!

Ben Ashelford

Players can't make a tackle, if you look at a goalkeeper for a second too long its a foul, probably. Nobody knows what offside is anymore. Nobody knows what a handball is anymore. I'm at least 90% sure that each official makes it up as they go along, safe in the knowledge they officious pillock in Stockley park will do the job for them. The fact they do the job badly is neither here nor there.

Here's a touch of logic, why don't you just remove all interpretation and just to back to having and enforcing laws? That way there's no ambiguity. There will be none of this referee one interprets the handball law this way while referee two, the following week, interprets it differently. It would just to back to handball or not handball and everybody knows where they stand.

That isn't where the money is though. The money is in the European super league, and believe me, that is still very much going to happen. Football as we knew it, is dying.

From the Terraces

Thomas Taylor

Good afternoon, everyone and a warm welcome to the players, staff, officials, and supporters of Hanwell Town. We hope you have a pleasant (without winning) afternoon here at the Bob Lucas Stadium and have a safe trip back to the capital this afternoon.

For someone who has been going home and away regularly since 2022 last Saturday felt like the absolute lowest of the lows for this club. Saturdays performance against Tadley Calleva was nothing short of humiliating and a total disgrace to all of us who got up early to make the trip to Hampshire. It definitely feels like we have hit rock bottom. However, if there is a positive to take out of last Saturday's disaster class then after hitting rock bottom the only way I suppose is up from here.

Our opponents this afternoon have had a mixed start to the season but still sit 4 points ahead of us as of this game. The Toon had a decent season last year finishing a respectable 8th in the Southern Premier League South only 3 places off the Play Offs. They will of course be looking towards the Play Offs again this season.

Today is the first home game since what felt like the inevitable managerial change and the unexpected change in the boardroom. With a club legend in Steve Claridge returning to the dugout and to a club who will always welcome him here. Today is hopefully the start of a new era on the pitch where we can finally kick start our stuttering season.

Let's get behind Steve and the boys this afternoon.

C'mon you Terras!

Thomas

STATS AND FACTS NUMBERS BEHIND THE GAME

Hanwell Town

We have never played against Hanwell Town before so we welcome “The Geordies” down to the Bob Lucas stadium for this inaugural meeting and we hope there won’t be too much fog on the terraces.

The London club, based in the north west of the capital at Perivale, were founded in 1920 by a bunch of Newcastle fans and have spent most of their history in the lower reaches of football’s non-league pyramid until being promoted to this level in 2022.

We may not have played our visitors before but we have played plenty of others from London toon over the years. A 5-1 home victory over Welling United in February of this year ended an 11 game run without a win against teams from the capital. However our recent record is better against sides from the big smoke travelling down with 5 wins, 3 draws and just the 2 losses on home soil. Howay the Weymouth lads!

New manager Steve Claridge has had his fair share of tussles with London sides in his first stint as Terras manager some 22 years ago, securing 1 win, 3 draws and just the 1 loss. Today we welcome the gaffer back in his league bow again as manager – and he will be hoping to be the first permanent Terras manager in the last 7 appointments to win their opening league game in charge. Easier than selling coals to Newcastle?!

Just one birthday found on this day – that of Defender Fred Marsden who played 93 competitive games for the Terras from 1949 to 1951. He brought a wealth of football league experience to the south coast, most notably with Blackburn and Wolves. Born in 1911 he was therefore nearly 40 when he hung up his boots and went on to become a coach at Bournemouth & Boscombe FC.

KEEP AN EYE ON

Harry SEABROOK

Harry joined the Geordies from Harrow Borough at the start of the 2024/25 season and quickly established himself in the centre of defence alongside Dwayne Duncan. Dominant in the air, his consistency at the back saw Chris Moore name him Manager's Player of the Season in his first season at the club. He has previously played for Leighton Town, helping them to promotion, as well as Uxbridge

Zion NDITI

Zion is another promising young wing back in our squad this season. The younger brother of Roberto, he was on the books at Aldershot U21s while also featuring on loan at North Leigh and Thatcham Town. He made his debut for Aldershot in the National League Cup against Leeds United U21s and was part of the squad that won the FA Trophy at Wembley last season.

THE GEORDIES

Sam BEASANT (C)

Sam joined the club from Beaconsfield in October 2023, winning the Supporters' Player of the Year and the Southern League Goalkeeper of the Season awards in his first season at the club. He was named as club captain at the start of the 2024/25 season, and brings a wealth of experience between the sticks, having played in the football league for Cambridge United and Stevenage

THE TOUCHLINE

In June 2017, Moore took up his first job in management at Egham Town, as the replacement for Gary Meakin. Moore and his assistant Wayne Carter were dismissed in January 2018. Then he and Carter were appointed joint managers of the Geordies. After the 21-22 season, Carter stepped away to take the manager's job at Chertsey Town, leaving Moore in sole charge.

Woods Words

Richard Wood

I am writing this the day after the afternoon before, in which we were knocked out of the FA Cup by a lower league team in embarrassing fashion in front of the nation on the BBC iPlayer.

It's been a time of big change over the last fortnight, with people leaving the club, following our poor start to the season.

Many people saw this coming and now we are left to try and rebuild the club once again on and off the pitch.

So it was not ideal to be going into the FA Cup game that we all knew would be tough, in times of massive upheaval.

Oh and by the way in amongst all of that, Steve Claridge has returned as manager!

I am pleased to see Steve back at the club, I always thought he had unfinished business here as the cliché goes, hopefully unlike 20 years ago club politics won't get in the way and he can get on with what is a massive job.

Fingers of blame can be pointed for the situation we are in, all I would say is I am sure those departed gave the all for the club and there will be things they have done that us fans won't know about.

But as a club we have got to try and move on, Donald Trump (someone I can't stand by the way) used to say "Nobody respects us, they are laughing at us" and that is a phase that certainly applies to us at the moment.

Respect has to be earned though , but I do think that we have lost respect from everyone over the last four or five years and as for laughing at us, there has been a lot of that from many quarters, not just from the usual suspects either, I as a fan am fed up with it and hopefully we can turn the tide, it will take time though I am sure. But I am hopeful we as a club will get there.

We have been here before.

'till next time,

Up The Terras!

THE NON-LEAGUE PAPER

ESSENTIAL READING FOR FOLLOWERS OF THE NATIONAL GAME

To subscribe, visit www.thenonleaguefootballpaper.com/subscriptions

IT'S easy to forget quite how big the National League System is and the broad church it represents.

From huge ex-Football League clubs with seven-figure playing budgets for their season to very small community clubs run by a handful of volunteers. But that's what makes Non-League – and football in this country, generally – so unique and special.

You may have heard The FA last year introduced a new board to oversee this level of the game along with the women's pyramid.

We sat down with Head of National League System James Earl and National League System manager Matt Edkins to discuss all things Non-League for a three-part series in The NLP.

Don't miss this week's chat which covers club allocations, the pyramid's structure before we move into club licensing and technology the week after.

Last week we touched on the new National Leagues Pyramid Board, including the appointment of its first ever independent chair, Chris Brown.

"The important bit to say is it's still a fundamental moment where this level of the game in both the men's and the women's pyramid have a strong collective voice with a senior seat at the table at the FA," Earl told us.

"Historically, certainly the National League System has been positioned between the professional and the grassroots game and has sat in a governance structure that's been in and around the grassroots game.

"But there's been a recognition of the importance of the National League System – and the women's football pyramid – and that it is unique in how we should be servicing it at The FA. So its introduction last year for the first time was a really key moment.

"That has had challenges and opportunities. Challenges is bringing two pyramids together that have been governed separately.

“One of the pieces of work we've been doing is around the brand and identity for the board, but also the level of the game.

“So there has been some work done around a new brand and hopefully that will be launched soon, which will bring a collective identity for not just the board, but leagues and clubs and other stakeholders to stand behind.

“It has been important to not make the board a repeat of committees that still exist. The intent is to make this a strategic board that looks at the broader direction of travel for clubs and leagues and players at this level of the game.

“We've still got a journey to go on to really understand what it is we want the board to do to be able to drive standards up, not just in the competitions, but the club landscape as well.

“I think after a year there's been some great success. We've had some good debates and good conversations, but actually the proof will be in delivery and I think that's going to come over the next couple of years.”

You can find the full conversation on our website and pick up The NLP for two more instalments.
