FROM THE BOARD ROOM

At least we have Steve's openness in speaking publicly, so no one is under any illusion about the challenges we face on the pitch. Recruitment is proving difficult—there isn't an abundance of players waiting to come through the door. I can see the challenges Steve is facing and the amount of work going in to try and turn things around, and I hope people understand and appreciate that.

Changes are also happening off the pitch. I would like to take this opportunity to personally thank Nigel Richardson for all his hard work over the past few years in organizing stewarding and safety. He will be stepping away from the club over the coming weeks, and his efforts have been greatly valued.

The world always feels more challenging when things don't go as we'd like. With people moving on and only a few returning, the demands on us grow. That's why we believe we will always need more people to step forward and support us.

We are all contributing, and no one is more important than anyone else in this club. If you are able to help—whether by supporting the physio with the players or by lending a hand behind the scenes — we would be truly grateful for you to get in touch with us.

FROM THE DUG OUT

Good afternoon and welcome everyone, including our opponents Tiverton Town to the Bob Lucas Stadium. It's been a difficult week for everyone involved as the two home defeats in four days have left us with more questions than answers at this stage.

Across the game, we need to show the level that we can get to if we're going to be successful in this league. The game against the resolute Gosport side showed that we do really lack that little bit of quality in good areas. Certainly from the Gosport game the one thing I can't question is the effort and the application that everyone put in to have gone behind to one of the worst goals we can see this season with regard to our own play.

Everybody at the Football Club is aware of the situation we find ourselves in, and it's very much the case that I'm getting the best out of the players that we have which I didn't think was far off being the case against Gosport and along the way eradicating any silly mistakes that certainly cost us in that match.

The games against Hanwell and Taunton who scored four and five goals respectively against their opposition in mid week, show that we are capable of holding our own against good side at this level and it's imperative today that we make our opponents work for everything they get, as we did in those two games rather than the two we've just played.

Three games in a week and off the back of two defeats I think I speak for everybody at the club in thanking you for your continued support through these tough times and I for one won't stop until we deliver you the game you deserve.

Enjoy the game and stay safe.

FROM THE SA PETE NASH

Good afternoon to you all and welcome back to the Bob Lucas Stadium for the final one of our three home games in a row. I would like to offer a warm welcome to the officials, staff and players of Tiverton Town, hope they enjoy their brief stay with us and wish them safe travels.

I don't want to say too much about Tuesday nights game, it's gone and we can't change it. That said, the fans need something positive to cheer, and from the on pitch side of things, that is getting long overdue. I don't intend to be critical of the players, that's not in my nature, I've never worn those boots so cannot appreciate the pressure they must feel when they cross that white line. Having said all that, we really need all the players to dig in, play with pride for the shirt, cast their fears aside and put in the performance we all know they are capable of. There is only so much disappointment we can handle and the patience well is pretty much dried up! So please guys, do it for us, get us that result we all so dearly crave.

On a lighter note, the Steve Claridge Fightback Fund has been wound up now, with a final total just over £7,100, which is simply incredible. It really does demonstrate the level of feeling we all have for this football club. We thank each and every one of you who have contributed to help raise this amazing sum of money in just a few short weeks. A gentle reminder there are still other ways you can continue to support your club, like the Claret & Blue Lottery. For £5 per number per month, your chosen number will be in the prize draw to win one of three cash prizes. The value of those prizes currently stand at £255, £155 and £55. With each new participant the prize pot will increase, as will the amount donated across to the clubs playing budget, which total stands at £1500 for this season so far. Of course the more numbers you have, the more chances you have of winning. The link is attached here. www.wfcsa.co.uk/claret-blue-lottery/

Rest assured, we continue to work hard on your behalf, and will continue to fundraise relentlessly in pursuit of glory on the pitch, because that is our aim and what we all crave. That we cannot do it without your backing is a given. We thank you all for your continued support, it really is appreciated.

Modern Football is ****!

Ben Ashelford

Mistakes are made at every single level of football. Nobody is perfect after all and even in the upper echelons of the football elite, mistakes are made.

Whether it be a transfer that was made by about 12 different people, none of whom actually manage a football club, or a typo from a volunteer in a match day programme, mistakes simply happen.

So it could be argued that moving this game forward to Saturday could well have been a mistake.

Due to being drawn away to Wimborne Town in the FA Trophy and this fixture with Tiverton Town brought forward to this Saturday, we now have no scheduled home game for the whole of October. I will have no way of knowing until I get there of course, but the chances are that after the Tadley debacle, people may have made plans for a rare free Saturday in their football calendar. I also don't know how many of the good people at Tiverton travel or whether or not their supporters may have made plans for their free Saturday. But with no game scheduled for the Bob Lucas in October, it got me thinking about how football has ruined Christmas, we'll mine at least.

I don't know how it is for the rest of you, I'm sure you've figured out by now that I am far from normal, but I love Christmas.

I love having 2 weeks off work. I love being able to spend time with my family, I love to enjoy the world darts championship. But more importantly, Boxing Day is football day. I binge eat and watch rubbish tv (and Die Hard) on Christmas Eve, I eat turkey and enjoy a relaxing day with my parents on Christmas day, and then on Boxing Day, I watch football. That's it, I watch football all day. All evening. That's literally it.

December 27th falls on a Saturday this year, so the idiots in charge of the game have scheduled no Boxing Day football.

If ever there was enough proof that modern football is ****. This is it.

Tune in:

From the Terraces

Thomas Taylor

Good afternoon all and a warm welcome to all the players, staff and supporters of our visitors from Tiverton. We hope you enjoy your afternoon (without winning) and have a safe trip back home to Devon.

Whilst Tuesday night's game was an overall improvement on Saturday's game against Gloucester, silly mistakes and a lack of a cutting edge still cost us dear against a Gosport side in a game which we should really have got something out of the game. There was some encouraging performances from some individuals such as Emmanuel Yeboah and Matty Burrows which was a bit of a shining light on otherwise a disappointing night under the lights.

Our opponents like ourselves haven't had a particular great start to the season. They are currently in 17th place and have only one win in the last six games that being at the expense of Bracknell Town. Tivvy only just managed to avoid the drop last season being just a point and two places over 19th placed Winchester City. Like last season it will be on paper as good season if Tivvy can survive again and aim for a repeat of their 23-24 Southern Premier League season where they finished a respectable 14th.

Today is the last of our three straight home league games. We are still without a goal or a point so far from these games. Granted Gloucester was always a tall order but Tuesday night felt like the one that got away and was more frustrating as we are a better side than that performance where we dominated large portions of the game but as previously mentioned, no cutting edge. Hopefully that can change this afternoon.

Let's get behind Steve and the boys this afternoon and finally get that long awaited first home win of the season.

C'mon you Terras!

Tiverton Town

Terras manager Steve Claridge will be looking to build on his unbeaten record as both player and manager against this Tiverton side following a win and a draw in his first stint as boss some 22 years ago. It was in the 2003/04 season when a pair of bank holiday fixtures earned Weymouth four points – a 2-1 win away on August Bank Holiday Monday which was followed up with a 1-1 draw at the Bob Lucas stadium on Easter Monday. Claridge managed the game from the pitch, bagging two assists for John Lamb in the August victory.

That pair of games was in the Southern league Premier just like this weekend and it is in this division where we have always faced “Tivvy” apart from four cup ties and a couple of friendlies over the years since our first meeting in 1990.

Our most recent tussles were in the Southern league in the 2018/19 campaign when a brace of 2-1 victories supplied 6 points that ultimately helped to secure the league title.

We have generally had the rub of the green against the yellows and currently defend a three game winning streak against the east Devon side (and five unbeaten at home) although we haven’t always had it our own way against our visitors from over the border, especially our first competitive encounter when we were knocked out of the FA Cup in 1997/98 under Neil Webb’s brief spell as Terras boss.

Over the years several players have featured for both sides but at least one, captain Toby Down could feature in the Tiverton side. He played for the Terras 16 times in the 2017/18 season.

THERE can't be many clubs with a better record of producing players fit for the EFL – and higher – than FC Halifax Town.

The number that have passed through the Shay down the years is quite something.

Our Chris Dunlavy, chief writer on sister title The Football League Paper, caught up with a former Shaymen last week after he called time on his career.

One of the privileges of this job is watching young footballers thrive in Non-League before getting their chance and then carving out a successful career in the higher levels.

Lee Gregory certainly did that, scoring 112 EFL goals for the likes of Millwall, Stoke, Sheffield Wednesday and Mansfield Town.

The striker began his journey at Staveley Miners Welfare and Sheffield FC and Glapwell before ripping it up at FC Halifax Town – alongside a certain Jamie Vardy.

But Gregory still remembers the conversation he had with Nicky Law during a brief spell on trial at Alfreton two decades ago.

"I was 17 or 18 and Nicky was the manager at Alfreton," he recalls. "He said to me one day, 'You don't have to be a professional. You can have a good career in Non-League. Get a job, do this on the side, put the extra money towards a house and you'll pay it off in 15 or 20 years'.

"I remember thinking 'You know, he's right'. That was my mentality when I was playing for Staveley Miners Welfare and Sheffield FC and Glapwell.

"By the time I got to 23, when I joined Halifax, I was like 'OK, this is my life - let's buy that house and stop dreaming'."

Thankfully for Gregory, now 37, an intervention from Kim Holloway - wife of Ian - changed the course of his life.

Gregory scored 29 National League goals for Halifax in the 2013-14 campaign. Holloway, then in charge of Millwall, was considering making an offer but feared the forward would struggle with the jump to the Championship.

"You could be the best player in the world but if you've not got the right opinion behind you, you're not going to go anywhere," says Gregory.

"It only takes one person to believe in you and in my case it was Ian's wife. She was the one who said 'Go on, why don't you take a chance on the lad from Non-League?' That one opinion changed my life.

"I did have other clubs in the pipeline. I was always going to end up in the EFL that summer. But none of them were in the Championship. I know you make your own luck, but you need help along the way. I was very lucky that she said that to him, and that he listened to her."

Gregory is just another example of how different players will take different routes into the Football League. We're lucky we get to see a lot of them at before they really make it.

Woods Words

Richard Wood

Another difficult watch on Tuesday evening.

I must admit I was cursing almost all the way home to Bridport!

It really doesn't help when you concede in the first minute, all the pre-match planning must go out of the window to a certain extent and when the teams confidence is still being worked on it must be the last thing you need.

Injuries are not helping, having to play people out of position because of our wafer thin squad.

Steve mentioned the fact of just how difficult it is to find players to come in at this stage of the season. Maybe in a few months, players who are not featuring much at their clubs may be more open to coming here on loan or indeed permanently, but by then it may well be too late.

We played some nice football at times I thought against Gosport, but we are lacking in both boxes and that is going to hurt you. It was felt from what I read in a few quarters that four points from Gosport and Tiverton was what was needed, well we know that even if we do manage a win today, that we can only manage three of those points and if we lose today, without wanting to be dramatic we are in a very big hole and it's only September!

Unfortunately this season is at the point of being a write off and if all you offered me was survival this season at this point I would snap your hand off.

But I do think we have to stick with Steve, as I say he inherited a pretty poor situation and has a very difficult task.

It is pretty wearing though, having seen us at the bottom or very near to it for five years now is a hard watch.

It is clear that every match we go into at this moment in time will require a herculean effort from everyone to get something from the game.

But we must battle on.

'till next time,
Up The Terras!

We're proud to say that Weymouth in the Community has now been running for over a year and what a year it's been! From day one our aim has been simple: use the power of football to bring people together, inspire the next generation, and make a real difference across our town. With the school holidays now behind us, our after-school football clubs are back in action.

Every session is led by FA-qualified coaches who not only love the game, but also love helping players improve. It's not just about developing football skills, it's about teamwork, confidence, and making sure every child leaves with a smile on their face.

Our Development Centre, held every Thursday, is also going from strength to strength, with new faces joining us every single week on. The passion for football in Weymouth is clear to see, and we couldn't be happier to be part of it. We're also working hard behind the scenes on some exciting new initiatives, both in schools and across the wider community, in which we will make sure to keep everyone updated. And of course, with the new season underway, our Mascot Packages are back. This is the chance for young Terras fans to meet the players, join in the warm-up, and walk out onto the pitch for an unforgettable matchday experience. Want to get involved?
