FROM THE BOARD ROOM

I see first-hand the effort being put in as we work to drive things forward. The challenges don't change, but we continue to bring players in, and we remain fully committed to developing the players we already have. From the start, we've been clear that this project is about steady, day-to-day progress over an 18-month period, not just short-term judgement.

At the same time, we can't ignore the reality: results need to go our way if we are to secure our place in this league and keep building the future we all believe in. The work is ongoing, the commitment is genuine, and everyone involved is pushing hard to achieve what this club demands and deserves.

Today we face a team that have been performing extremely well in the league and will provide a very tough challenge. But our players will go into the match with drive, passion, and absolute commitment. They will work for each other, stick to the plan, and give everything they have to try to win the game.

That spirit—of resilience, ambition, and togetherness—is at the heart of what we are building here, and it will continue to carry us forward.

FROM THE DUG OUT

Good afternoon and welcome everyone to this afternoon's game against Uxbridge. Got to say my overriding feeling is one of massive disappointment since we last spoke as we have suffered two defeats on the road that have certainly been hard to take.

The first one against Havant and Waterlooville really should've resulted in us taking home a point even though we lost Tom Bearwish in the warmup. There really was very little in the game with both sides keeper's not really having a save to make until we conceded from our throw in deep in their half from not being organised because a lack of communication left us short at the back.

At Gosport the situation was even more frustrating as we start the game very strongly and took a deserved lead. We then had a chance to extend that lead but unfortunately Brandon missed his penalty and then, within the space of half an hour we lost three players to injuries and from being in total control we found ourselves 3-1 down. To the boy's credit after conceding another and with all the changes that had to be made they showed fantastic character getting two goals back and in the end really should've got something from the game.

There's no doubt over the last month that if things could go wrong, they have and we really should be sat with at least another 10 points to our name, however we're not and now it's a case of even under the most difficult circumstances we have to start getting results.

Thank you for your continued support and here's hoping with a little bit of luck we can repay your faith, enjoy the game and stay safe.

FROM THE SA ADE MACDONALD

Good Afternoon,

A change from the usual today, Pete is busy with his WFC Board and Football Secretary commitments and so it's me, Ade, stepping in to bring you the SA update.

Back in October we held the WFCSA Annual General Meeting. This year it had a special significance because two of our longest serving Board members retired from their roles. Dave Parsons started with the Supporters Club in 2001 and took over the Treasurer position in 2003. He's looked after the finances for the former Supporters Club, WFCSA, The Travel Club, Wessex Fantasy Football and the 'Old Gits'. WFCSA was formed in 2010 when the former Terra's Trust and Supporter's Club merged to form a single organisation. Merging the finances proved to be a challenging task and Dave worked hard to complete it. He's also produced the accounts for the Club itself for many years.

Colin Huckle took on the Secretary role for the former Terra's Trust when it was formed in 2008. He is also a founding member of WFCSA and oversaw the formal administration work during the merger. Colin has been our link to the Football Supporter's Association and has liaised with them on several occasions when we've turned to them for advice over the years.

The work that Dave & Colin have done over the years will have gone mostly unseen to a lot of fans. However, their work has been essential and WFCSA, and the other groups they've been involved with, could not function without it. We owe them both huge thanks for all their work. The Club has presented them both with lifetime season tickets and they will be special guests at a game later in the season.

FROM THE SA ADE MACDONALD

Following our AGM, the WFCSA Board has now elected people to the key roles. Pete Nash is re elected as our Chairman. Rob Nash is our newly elected Treasurer. I am re-elected as our Vice- Chairman and newly elected Secretary.

Festive Raffle

Our Festive Raffle tickets are now on sale. You can buy online by going to the Club website and clicking the 'New Shop' button at the top of the homepage. We also have tickets on sale from the club shop on match days and from the office on non-match days. We have some great prizes up for grabs, most of which are generously donated to us by local businesses. The draw will be made in the bar after our home match on Saturday 3rd January.

Christmas Bingo

This takes place at the club on Friday 5th December. Doors will be open at 6.30 and the bingo starts at 7.30. This is always a popular event and profits from the night help to support the Travel Club.

Obviously, the last couple of results have been disappointing for us fans. But we're back on home turf today and it's our job to get behind Steve & the lads and give them some great support.

Up The Terras!

Thomas Taylor

Good afternoon, everyone, and a warm welcome to the Bob Lucas Stadium for the very first time the supporters, players, and officials of Uxbridge. We hope you enjoy your visit and have a safe journey back home (without winning) to West London later on.

The last two games have very much fluctuated between a really good home win against Taunton Town, and a second half horror show away against Havant & Waterlooville. I was very much talking up our chances for Saturday but that momentum and excellence we showed against the Peacocks just seemed to disappear in that rain soaked second half. I am hoping this is a one-off setback but knowing the past 4 years consistency is something that seems to be missing here at Weymouth.

Our opponents this afternoon are an unknown to us, having never faced each other before. The Reds gained promotion from the Isthmian League South Central (rolls off the tongue) via the playoffs. The resulting win took them to step three for the first time in the club's history. The Reds have started well to their first season at this level and currently sit in eight place in the table with seven wins to their name. With recent recruitments such as ex Bolton and Great British Olympic Team striker Marvin Sordell they are not contempt with staying at this level for long.

Make no mistake this game today will be tough but when we do come up against sides above us in the league, we do tend to step up our game. We need to start registering wins on the board at home if we are to pull ourselves away from the bottom four.

Let us get behind Steve and the boys this afternoon and get all three points.

C'mon you Terras!

STATS AND FACTS
NUMBERS BEHIND THE GAME
VS
Uxbridge

We have only played this north-west London side four times in our history but the pattern of when we have played them must constitute some sort of weird record! This is due to the fact we had a 102 year gap between our second and third meetings!

Our very first meeting was back in the early years after the formation of our club. In fact it was just our second FA Cup campaign ever in 1894. At that time the Terras were a small fish in a small pool, playing in the Dorset league whereas “The Reds”, as one of the oldest clubs in the country, had already been established for over 20 years and that season were accepted as one of the founder members of the Southern league in the inaugural campaign of that competition. Despite a gulf in experience, the underdogs Weymouth travelled to (what then was Middlesex) and valiantly only lost by two goals to one.

Bizarrely these two teams would be drawn against each other again in the FA cup just a year later – although one round later in the competition.

Sadly for the travelling Terras, history would repeat itself as we again bowed out of the cup at the same venue and to the very same scoreline.

As I have mentioned before it would be over a century before we were destined to meet again but this time in another cup competition – the FA Trophy in 1997/98. That proved to be a triumphant season for the Terras as we went on to clinch the Southern League Southern division title so perhaps we can be forgiven for bowing out of this cup at the first hurdle that season! At that time Uxbridge were in a parallel division in the pyramid in the Isthmian league so we probably expected an evenly matched tie and that seemed to prove to be the case. Following a 2-2 draw in London I suspect we harboured thoughts of finishing off the job at home in the replay but it clearly wasn't meant to be as, for the third time in four meetings, we lost again by two goals to one.

THE HISTORY OF...

In the late 19th century, the game of “football” was growing in popularity, and on the 3rd February 1871 a group of eminent local businessmen held the inaugural meeting of Uxbridge Football Club. A local solicitor, Mr William Gardiner, was elected as the Club’s President and the club’s colours were chosen as white shirts with a light blue Maltese cross and a light blue velvet cap with silver tassel.

Friendly games against local opposition were played in the early years, until the FA Cup was entered in 1873. A First Round Victory over Gitanos set-up a Second-Round tie against eventual finalists Royal Engineers, which the Engineers narrowly won 2-1. It was at this time that Uxbridge could boast amongst its ranks a Full England International. Hubert Heron played for England on two occasions whilst an Uxbridge player before he moved to Wanderers FC where he gained further international honours. His brother Francis, formerly of Uxbridge, also played for England after joining him at Wanderers FC. The club changed its colours to Oxford Blue and Cambridge Blue shirts in 1874 but they were in financial difficulties and folded later that year.

The main problem for Uxbridge was the lack of a permanent home ground (a problem that was to plague them until the middle of the next century), the committee searched the town for a suitable base but were thwarted at every turn and they led a nomadic existence, moving ground every few years. The enthusiasm for a team in Uxbridge was still prevalent and the Club was reformed in 1879. In 1886 Uxbridge FC amalgamated with another local club, Uxbridge Crescents, and played under this name in season 1886/87, before reverting to plain old Uxbridge the following season. It was at this time that the Red Shirts, which are still worn today, were adopted and the nickname “The Reds” was born. Their first trophy was won in 1889 when they lifted the West Middlesex Cup, defeating Colnbrook 1-0 in the Final. The end of the 19th century was a particularly successful period for The Reds as they won the West Middlesex Cup on three further occasions and also won the prestigious Middlesex Senior Cup twice. In 1894 they beat the 3rd Grenadier Guards 2-0 and repeated that success two years later with a 3-2 victory over local rivals Southall in a replay in front of over 5000 spectators. The outstanding achievement however was in reaching the final of the F.A. Amateur Cup in 1898. This was the clubs first season in the competition, and they had to win eight ties before meeting Middlesborough in the final at Crystal Palace. Unfortunately, their Northeast rivals proved too strong for them on the day and ran out 2-0 winners. During this successful period for the club, they became founder members of Division Two of the Southern League in 1894, finishing fourth in their first four seasons. However, in season 1898/99 they finished next to bottom and the dwindling crowds (averaging around 500) meant that financially the club was once again in trouble.

A decision was therefore taken to withdraw from the Southern League and join the local Middlesex League to try and stabilise the club. However, a majority of the more talented players joined other clubs, and they struggled in their new surroundings, finishing bottom with only one point from their 14 games. At the end of the season the club had a deficit of £130 and with few players the club once again folded. For two years much fund raising amongst the local community finally saw the club’s debts paid and the reformed Uxbridge FC joined the West Middlesex League for the 1902/03 season. In 1904 the Great Western Suburban League was entered and here they stayed until the outbreak of the First World

THE REDS

War. Their best finish during this period was as Runners-up to Brentford Reserves in 1910/11. They also won the Middlesex Charity Cup on two occasions in 1908 and 1913, as they looked to re-establish themselves as a force in the football world. Following the end of hostilities Uxbridge joined the Athenian League and added "Town" to their name. An unsuccessful first Athenian League campaign saw them relegated back to the Great Western Suburban League in 1920. A successful four seasons saw them back in the Athenian League in 1924 where they remained until 1937. The Middlesex Charity Cup was won for the third time in 1935 as Finchley were beaten 4-3. Two poor seasons saw them finish bottom of the Athenian League in 1936 and 1937 and the club failed to be re-elected. They joined the Spartan League for the 1937/38 season, dropping "Town" from their name at the end of the campaign stood proudly at the summit. Championship celebrations however were cut short when it was discovered that The Reds had played an ineligible player and were deduced six points, placing them in third position behind Champions Marlow.

Following the debacle of their one and only season in the Spartan League they resigned and joined the London League prior to the Second World War. During the war years they continued to play and joined the newly formed Great Western Combination League before re-joining the London League in 1945, finishing as Runners-up to Edgware Town. Uxbridge were founder members of the Corinthian League in 1946 and remained in this league for the next seventeen years. Finally, in 1948, after over three quarters of a century of searching, a ground of their own was purchased. A piece of land in Cleveland Road, Cowley was bought for £5,800 by then President Mr W.S. Try. The ground was named after a large house that stood on the land and "Honeycroft" was the new home of Uxbridge Football Club. During this period, they won their only Championship to-date when they were crowned Corinthian League Champions at the end of the 1959/60 season. They also won the Middlesex Senior Cup for the third time in 1951 when they defeated Hayes 2-1. This was a successful period in the club's history as they finished in the top five of the Corinthian League on no less than eight occasions and crowds were averaging around the thousand mark. A re-organisation of non-League football saw the end of the Corinthian League in 1963 and club found itself once again in Division One of the Athenian League. This was a lean time for The Reds, they were relegated to Division Two in 1967 and financial problems once again beset them. They gained national publicity in 1976 when England were looking for a side to play as part of their warmup for the forthcoming World Cup campaign. Uxbridge took on a full-strength England at Wembley, losing 8-0. The ground problems that had blighted Uxbridge throughout their history surfaced once again and the club had to find a new home. In 1978 they moved to their current headquarters in Horton Road, Yiewsley. A former works Sports & Social Club they have developed the site to the superb standard you see today.

Over the past 43 years they have added floodlights (opened by the visit of Arsenal in 1981), new stands, fencing and in more recent times a new clubhouse was opened and car park laid. On the playing front the club won the Middlesex Charity Cup for the fourth time in 1982, their first silverware for 31 years, and moved to the Isthmian League in the same year, winning promotion to Division One in 1985. The Final of the AC Delco Cup (League Cup) was reached in 1986, where they met Premier Division Champions Sutton United.

The Reds failed to stop Sutton completing "The Double" though, losing 3-1 in the Final in front of over a thousand spectators at Imber Court, the home of Metropolitan Police FC, Uxbridge entered the London Challenge Cup for the first time in the 1992/93 season and hence followed a love affair between the Reds and the magnificent trophy. In the eight seasons they entered the competition they reached five finals, winning on three occasions in 1994, 1997 and 2000. They won the Middlesex Senior Cup for the fourth time in 2001, defeating Harrow Borough 3-0 in the Final held at Honeycroft. In 2004 the club were moved across the pyramid to the Southern League and have reached the Play-Offs on three occasions. In 2004/05 they lost on penalties, after leading Maldon Town in extra-time, in 2007/08 they narrowly lost 0-1 at Oxford City and in 2011/12 they lost 2-1 at Bedworth United in the Semi-Finals.

In 2018 Uxbridge were moved back across the pyramid, re-joining the Isthmian League in the South-Central Division. In 2019 Uxbridge appointed only their sixth manager in over fifty years. Ron Clack was in charge for 18-years from 1970, followed by Peter Marshall for one season, Michael Harvey for three, before George Talbot took the reins for fourteen seasons in 1992. In 2006 Tony Choules became the man in charge, being replaced by our current manager Danny Edwards in 2019. Danny is a UEFA A licensed coach who spent 15 years as manager of Chalfont St Peter AFC. He steered Chalfont St Peter to Step 4 of the league system in 2011, as well as reaching the 3rd Qualifying Round of the Football Association Challenge Cup on three occasions. The Middlesex Chai-ty Cup was won for the 8th time in 2022, with a 2-0 victory over Hanwell Town. This feat was repeated in 2023 when North Greenford United were defeated 2-1 in the final at Bedfont Sports.

In recent times the club have mourned the passing of several club stalwarts. President Alan Odell, who had been associated with The Reds for eighty years, in 2016. Long serving Chairman Alan Holloway in 2021, a year later "Mr Uxbridge", David Tucker who had been associated with the club for over 50 years and was a massive influence in the running of Uxbridge Football Club. And just this summer former Secretary and President Roger Stevens was taken from us.

Mark Bantock took over as Chairman from his stepfather, Alan Holloway, and under his stewardship the club has used the legacy left by "Mr Uxbridge" to revitalise the Club. A 3G pitch was installed in 2023, along with new floodlights, pitch surround, dugouts and a 158-seater stand on the far-side of the ground. The Clubhouse has been refurbished to a high standard, providing a space to enjoy for both home and visiting fans.

Last season will live long in the memory of all Uxbridge supporters. After a poor start to the season, one point after four games, The Reds steadily climbed the table, finally finishing as runner-up to runaway Champions Farnham Town. A goal down in the Play-off semi-final against Kingstonian they fought back to lead 2-1, until Eddie Simon equalised ten minutes into stoppage-time to force the tie into extra-time and then penalties. A 100% record saw them triumph 5-4 and a place in the Promotion Final. A record crowd at Honeycroft Horton Road of 1535 witnessed a pulsating final, in which Hanworth Villa took the lead. Once again, the Reds showed great character and resilience to fight-back and George Moore sent a powerful drive into the bottom corner to seal promotion to Step Three of the pyramid. Their first promotion in forty-years!

Our last appearance here at home saw a great 2-0 victory against Taunton.

Despite taking a while to get into the game, I thought we played some good stuff at times and for once a better performance was rewarded with the three points.

The relief I felt when that second goal went in was very enjoyable, you could feel the relief around the ground as well.

That took a little bit of pressure off us going into the Havant game.

Going on reports we played well in the first half, but once again we couldn't make it count in the goals for column.

As so often happens the second half proved to be a a lot different and we were punished for a bit of slack play.

I am writing this during the away match at Gosport and we have gone from being 1-0 up and missing a penalty, to losing 4-1, we did manage to score a couple to get it to 4-3, but again another game to write off.

Bearing in mind I am also a Liverpool supporter and you can tell I am not enjoying my football at the moment!

Lets hope we can get something today.

'till next time,

Up The Terras!

FOOTBALL'S latest trend accessory, the micro shin pad, is going out of fashion faster than a John Barnes free-kick, it seems.

As the name suggests, “micro” - or “mini” pads as they are also known - are modern-day shin guards that cover a smaller amount of the shin, about the size of a Custard Cream biscuit.

But last week, we reported that a number of Step 5 and 6 clubs had imposed bans prohibiting their use following a horror injury suffered by young Ilfracombe Town winger Riley Malin.

Malin suffered a double leg break after coming off worse in a 50/50 challenge against Bridport, forcing their South West Peninsula League Premier East match to be abandoned. Micro shinpads were blamed and, as a result, the Bluebirds, along with Bridport and the likes of Bude Town and Dobwalls FC, announced that they implemented an immediate and non-negotiable ban on the use of micro shin pads across all age groups and squads.

Ilfracombe said the decision had been made in the “interest of player safety and welfare”, and to ensure that all players are “equipped with protective gear that meets required safety standards”.

Showcased by Premier League stars such as Jack Grealish, the micro shinpad is now a popular item in dressing rooms up and down the country at amateur, grass roots and junior level.

FA guidance for shin pads in community football states that such protection is a “compulsory” piece of equipment, but stops short of prohibiting micro versions.

“The amount of shin physically covered is an important consideration, as any part of the shin that is not covered is not as well protected,” the guidance says.

“‘Micro’ or ‘Mini’ shin pads may therefore increase the risk of injury due to the smaller amount of shin covered compared to larger sized shin pads.”

Malin’s injury proved the final straw for Ilfracombe, who said in a statement: “All players must wear regulation-sized, fully protective shin pads for all matches, training sessions, and club-sanctioned activities.

“Any player found wearing micro shin pads—or any shin protection that does not meet accepted safety standards—will not be permitted to participate until compliant equipment is worn.

“The incident at Bridport highlighted the unacceptable risk posed by inadequate protective equipment. The club has a duty of care to every player, and this measure is essential to maintaining safe and responsible playing conditions.”

Their stance has been emulated by South West Peninsula League rivals Bude Town. They added: “This decision has been made to ensure player safety and welfare across all elements of competitive football, whether that be matches or training.

“Players will not be able to play for Bude Town Football Club unless compliant equipment is worn and we need the co-operation from players, coaches and parents/guardians to enforce this decision.”

Since our article, a number of other clubs have followed suit and also publicly come out in support of the ban.

Isthmian South Central side Binfield said: “Following recent reviews of match-day equipment and reports within the press highlighting the ineffectiveness of micro shin pads, the club is introducing a full ban on micro shin pads, effective immediately.

“Whilst we recognise that The FA has not yet put a ban in place to this effect, we at Binfield FC strongly believe that micro shin pads do not provide adequate protection and significantly increase the risk of injury.

“To maintain a safe playing environment for all, all players must wear appropriately sized shin pads for training sessions and competitive fixtures.

We ask all players, parents, and coaches to support this policy and ensure suitable equipment is worn at all times.

“The club will continue to prioritise player welfare and appreciates your cooperation in upholding these standards.

And clubs at Step 7 are also taking a stance.

Beaminster FC, who play in the Dorset Football League, said that their new shin pad policy was “a non-negotiable policy”.

“Managers/coaches and club officials present on the day will be asked to check that players are wearing appropriately sized shin guards that comply with this new policy,” they said.

“Failure to comply will result in the player being withdrawn from the fixture.”

And Lyme Regis FC, who play in the Devon and Exeter Premier, added: “Player safety is our highest priority, and this policy reflects our commitment to ensuring a safe and responsible playing environment for everyone at the club.”

With Ilfracombe’s stance gathering support all the time, don’t be surprised others make a stand, thus forcing the relevant governing bodies into making a firmer decision in time.

Safety, not vanity must be the order of the day here and if a blanket ban prevents just one injury as suffered by Riley Malin then common sense will have prevailed.

Development Centre Spaces Still Available

Our Development Centre continues to go from strength to strength, and we still have spaces available for players to join us up until Christmas. Sessions take place every Thursday evening at Weymouth Rugby Club, offering high-quality coaching in a fun, challenging environment that supports players' development both technically and socially.

As we head toward the new year, we are looking to grow our numbers even further and welcome more young footballers into our pathway. Whether you're already training with us or looking to get involved for the first time, now is the perfect time to join.

Half-Time Crossbar Challenge Update

Our brand-new Half-Time Crossbar Challenge has now been running for a few weeks and has already become a fantastic addition to the matchday experience. Despite some very close attempts, the crossbar is yet to be hit, meaning the prize pot is rolling over and currently sits at £50!

For just £1 a ticket, supporters have the chance to be one of the two fans selected to step onto the pitch at half-time and take a shot from the edge of the D. Hit the bar and you take home the winnings and if both finalists hit, the prize is shared. If no-one does, it keeps building!

It's a great opportunity to get involved, have some fun, and be part of the matchday atmosphere.

Weymouth in the Community

⚽ Half-Time Crossbar Challenge! ⚽

We're thrilled to introduce our brand-new Community Crossbar Challenge, taking place every home game at half-time!

Here's how it works:

Before kick-off, raffle tickets will be on sale for £1 each. Two lucky winners will be announced at half-time, both over the tannoy and on the pitch's electric board, for the chance to step onto the pitch and take one shot from the edge of the D to hit the crossbar!

If you hit it, you take home 50% of the total pot. If both players hit, you'll split it 25% each, with the remaining 25% going to the club and 25% supporting Weymouth in the Community.

If no one hits it, the prize fund rolls over to the next home game, so it keeps growing until someone lands the perfect strike!

It's a fantastic opportunity to get out on the pitch at half-time and be part of the matchday experience. Players of all ages are welcome, under 13s will need to be accompanied by an adult to take the shot, and under 16s will need an adult present to collect any winnings.

So grab your tickets before kick-off and get ready for your chance to hit the bar, win big, and support your club and community!
