FROM THE BOARD ROOM

It's been a very disappointing couple of weeks for us in the first team.

Injury and illness have played a significant role, with key players suffering and trying to push through it, which has naturally had an impact on performances. However, we start again this Saturday with a full squad—hopefully in far better health — as we welcome Farnham Town.

With everyone back and available, we expect a much stronger performance.

Moving on, we want to congratulate the Ladies, who have faced a very challenging season of rebuilding but have still managed to reach the Plate Final. That is a fantastic achievement and a hugely positive step forward for them.

Off the pitch, we continue to work on several important developments.

While we can't share too much just yet, we remain confident that something very promising is on the horizon.

Today, we welcome Farnham Town, and we hope you'll get behind the lads, make yourselves heard, and be the 12th man...

Up the Terras!

FROM THE DUG OUT

Good afternoon and welcome to the Bob Lucas Stadium for today's match vs Farnham Town.

Today we look to turn our fortunes back around. Saturday was very disappointing, but we must move on. We have put some good performances together and we must remember that.

There is still great belief and a good mood in the camp and we are looking forward to the challenge of today's game. Farnham have as much to play for as we do and we have shown we can get results against teams at their end of the table.

Enjoy the game and get behind the lads.

FROM THE SA PETE NASH

Good afternoon everyone. I would like to offer a warm Weymouth welcome to the officials, players and supporters of Farnham Town, hope they enjoy their brief stay at the Bob Lucas Stadium and wish them safe travels.

Results have not gone the way we would have wanted these past few weeks, there is no hiding from that. We know we are in a scrap to stay in this league. Having said that, both away at Gloucester City and home to Havant & Waterlooville, we were competitive and unfortunate not to get something out of those games. Last week at Uxbridge, we just never really got going and paid the price for that in the end. Disappointing and frustrating as it is, we are by no means consigned to the next level down. We have enough games to save ourselves, with a period of games coming up that will give us a clear indication of which direction we are going in. Personally, I continue to look up at the teams we can catch, pass and put between ourselves and the drop zone. We're not done yet, not by a long way. We all continue to work hard for the club within the constraints we have to live with.

Expanding on that last comment, as you may know, the club held its AGM earlier this month, which was well attended. All motions were passed with Ralph and Kelvin both being re-elected to the board. The accounts were presented and accepted, but I think it is really important to clarify some points. The club recorded a loss just in excess of £165k, which in isolation looks really bad. What I need to clarify for you, this is the level of donations the club received during the financial year in question. Previously, this total would have been recorded in the profit and loss column, meaning you would be unaware of the level of donations required to keep the club operating. I'm no financial expert, though my understanding is improving all the time. Whilst you may find this amount alarming, this level of donations has been coming into the club for some years, and includes money the SA paid across during the period in question. All that has changed, is previous chairman, Paul Maitland, stated at the 2025 AGM the intention for the level of donations to be visible to all, which it now is. The club must still continue to work hard to explore new revenue streams and improve the non match day income, which we are doing. There is no easy answer, if there was, it would have been found by now! I've bought my lottery ticket for Tuesday!

Some time ago now, I informed the SA BOD that I would continue in post as chairman until the AGM in 2028, at which point, I would stand down. That would have seen me complete over 10 years as your chairman. Since taking on the role of Football Secretary last October, all be it on an interim basis, I have found it increasingly difficult to balance both roles. Also, I have been acutely aware there are some conflicts of interests that will arise from time to time. After extensive discussions with my SA board colleagues, culminating in a discussion at our recent monthly meeting, it has been agreed that it is in the best interests of both the SA and football club if I relinquish my position of SA chairman. I can then better serve the club in my role as Football Secretary, whilst, subject to agreement, remain an active member of the SA board, without the pressure and responsibility that comes with being chairman. We are currently in discussions to appoint a successor, which may be interim, with a view to ensuring the new incumbent is happy with the role. I will remain your WFC board director, until such time as a new person is in place. This does not need to be the new chairman, both roles can be separated out, and further discussions are ongoing. We will keep you updated as events progress. Please rest assured that we will maintain continuity of both roles, until such time as replacements are in place.

FROM THE SA

Before I sign off, plans for this seasons Hall of Fame event are well under way. The date is set for Friday 20th March, when we will induct Pete Pavey, Ben Thomson, Jorge Diaz and Lee Bradford. It promises to be a fantastic evening and tickets, despite all the increased pressure of rising costs, are priced at just £45 each! Food will be provided courtesy of Loose Moose and we are really looking forward to welcoming you along for the event. Please get your tickets early as we expect high demand for this event so don't miss out!

Thank you all for your continued support.

Best wishes to you all,

STATS AND FACTS NUMBERS BEHIND THE GAME VS Farnham Town

We have may have only played “The Town” once but what a game it was back in October! The leaves had started to fall by then and ultimately so did Farnham’s unbeaten records as the Terras left Surrey with all three points in a brilliant comeback.

Callum Watts opened the scoring for the Terras within the first quarter of an hour but the hosts roared back to stun the visitors with a brace of goals in first half stoppage time. Weymouth were not fazed though as they came back with a quickfire brace themselves – Reuben Reid scoring with aplomb before Callum Watts bagged the winning goal with around 20 minutes to spare. Points were not the only prize that day as we also left the Home Counties as the first team to beat Farnham in the league that season and the first to beat them at home in far longer.

I can find just the two players who have featured for both sides although there are possibly a couple more!

Both were brought to the club by Bobby Wilkinson but one a season before the other. It was Zaki Oualah first in the 2022/23 conference south season, the gloveman featuring 36 times in that campaign. After moving through a few clubs he ended up at Farnham in 2025 and featured in their latest promotion campaign and played this season. In fact he featured in goal against the Terras in October but moved on again a week later.

The other is midfielder Joel Rollinson who played for the Terras in the 2023/24 campaign, initially under Wilkinson and then Jason Matthews as caretaker and finally Mark Molesley. Farnham was Joel’s next club following his Terras departure in the summer of 2024 but he only lasted a couple of months before moving on again to Bracknell Town.

Back to today though and this weekend’s game – Can the Terras paint The Town red and complete a memorable double over the high-fliers?

FARNHAM TOWN ~ HISTORY

Farnham Town was established in 1906 through the merger of Farnham Bungs (the Farnham Brewery) and Farnham Star.

It became a member of the Surrey Intermediate League and were champions in 1929-30 and 1930-1931.

In 1947, The Town joined the Surrey Senior League, left in 1962 but returned in 1963.

The club won three successive league titles in 1965-1966, 1966-1967 and 1967-1968 and were runners up in 1969-1970 and 1970-1971 before joining the Spartan League in 1971.

When that league merged with the Metropolitan London league to become the London Spartan League in 1975, the club were placed in Division 1, which became the Premier Division in 1977.

After finishing bottom of the London Spartan Premier Division in 1979-1980, Farnham transferred to the Combined Counties League and finished fourth in their first season.

The 1986-1987 season saw Farnham finish second to Ash United however, in 1990-1991, The Town would go one better by winning their first league title.

The following season the Town won a clean sweep of the major trophies by winning the Combined Counties Premier League, the Dan Air Elite Cup and the Dan Air Challenge Cup.

Having won the league, the club was accepted to the Diadora League (Division 3 of the Isthmian League). However, funds for the necessary ground improvements could not be generated and, since the club were unable to rejoin the Combined Counties League until the following season, it did not compete in the league during season 1992-93.

From 1995 to 1998 The Town would enjoy three consecutive top six finishes and, in 1995-96, won the Premier Challenge Cup for a second time.

Having finished bottom of the league in 2005-2006, the club was relegated to Division 1 and, although The Town won the Division 1 title the following season under the guidance of Barry Bridger, we were denied promotion due to ground grading issues.

In Paul Tanner's first season in charge, The Town finally gained promotion from the Combined Counties Division 1 in 2010-2011 having finished second behind Worcester Park and won the Combined Counties Fair Play Award having gone through the season without having a player sent off.

In 2015-2016, the club not only won the Cherry Red Records Premier Challenge Cup but also reached the final of the Aldershot FA Senior Cup.

Relegated back to Division 1 in 2017-2018, The Town performed strongly in the two COVID interrupted seasons 2019-20 and 2020-21 and were rewarded with a move up to newly created Cherry Red Records Combined Counties Premier Division South in 2021 where they play today.

In 2021-22, The Town consolidated themselves in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties Premier Division South and built on that in 2022-23 under the new management of Paul Johnson and assistant Jimmy Hibburt.

After taking the reins in November 2022, Johnson helped guide Farnham to a top six finish in the league but also brought silverware to the Club as they defeated Balham in the Southern Combination Cup in May 2023, defeating Balham in front of a home crowd of over 1,150 people.

2023/24 brought even greater success, with the Town going unbeaten on their way to winning the Premier Division South league title and promotion to the Isthmian League South Central Division; achieving the club's best ever runs in the FA Cup and FA Vase; and reaching the final of the Specsavers Surrey Senior Cup, where we went down to a 1-0 defeat to South Park (Reigate).

Last season saw the Town become back to back champions, winning the Isthmian League South Central Division and securing promotion to the Premier South Division of the Southern League, our highest ever level.

THE TOWN - PLAYER PICS

Jack Dean

Dean joined the Town in May 2023 coming from Step 3 side Bracknell Town to join his brother Owen at The Memorial Ground.

He is a combative full-back who loves a big tackle and has a very good leap for headers. His endless energy also means he is great at overlapping for the wingers.

Jack was a vital member of the Town's back-to-back title-winning squads seeing them move from Step 5 into Step 3 between 2023 and 2025, making 67 appearances in his two seasons with the Club so far.

Brandon Mason

Brandon joined the Club on a free transfer from National League South side St. Albans City, signing a contract until the summer of 2026.

The experienced left-back came through the ranks with Watford and made a handful of Premier League appearances as a teenager before being part of the Coventry City squad that earned promotion from League One into the Championship in 2019/20.

In recent years, Brandon has been a mainstay at National League level with Wealdstone and then St. Albans City.

Harry Cooksley

Accolades: Farnham Town Player's & Manager's Player of the Season 23/24.

Cooksley is a midfield maestro, known for his sensational ball-playing abilities. The midfielder joined from Hartley Wintney in May 2023 having finished the campaign playing at Step 3.

Other previous clubs include Aldershot Town, Farnborough and a stint in Austria for FC Pinzgau.

Over the past two seasons, Harry has made 96 appearances for the Club, scoring 22 goals and providing 31 assists, helping the Town achieve back-to-back promotions.

THE TOWN - PLAYER PICS

Kai Tanner

Tanner came through the ranks at the Town and after breaking into the first team he left for League Two side Sutton United. An injury during a loan at Corinthian Casuals cut his time there short and forced Sutton United's hand so Tanner re-joined the Town in August 2023.

Kai, the son of Club Director and former manager Paul Tanner, is a tricky attacker he beats players with his low centre of gravity and sharp movements. He scored the goal that sparked the comeback for our 2-2 draw at Jersey Bulls which clinched our promotion to Step 4 for the first time Over the last two seasons, Kai has scored 11 goals in 75 appearances as the Town have earned back-to-back promotions.

Great Evans

Great arrived at the Club in September 2024 from Bracknell Town of the Southern League Premier South and has settled in quickly at the Club.

Having played for the likes of AFC Wimbledon, Leatherhead and Hayes & Yeading as well, Great's come in with plenty of experience at higher levels and has the ability to operate through the middle or in wider attacking areas.

In 2024/25, Great scored 12 goals and provided 13 assists in 35 appearances for the Town as we earned promotion to the Southern League Premier South.

From the Touchline

Paul Johnson had enjoyed great success in non-league firstly as a player and then as a manager, guiding Spelthorne Sports to promotion before taking Bedfont Sports up into Step 4.

In November 2022, he became the Farnham Town manager and won silverware in his first season as the Town beat Balham 3-2 in the Southern Combination Cup Final in May 2023.

The 23/24 season was a historic one for the Club under Johnson as they enjoyed their best-ever runs in the FA Cup and FA Vase, reached the Surrey Cup Final for the first time ever, but most importantly, were crowned champions of the Combined Counties Premier Division South after completing an invincible league campaign.

Woods Words

Richard Wood

The pressure is certainly on now.

After a good little run a few weeks back, the hard work has been undone by an equally poor run.

As I said before, we really need those teams with games in hand to catch up with us, because the fact is that we are in the relegation zone having played more games than those around us, so to me, it's not looking good.

Yes, people did say it's better to have the points on the board rather than the games in hand and yes, if we were up the table a bit more with more points then I would agree, but we are not and realistically we are going to have to go on our best form of the season to avoid the drop.

How many points will we need? Who knows? It is really as simple as we have win as many games as possible.

Losing loan players and injuries have not helped, but really unfortunately, this season has been another disaster.

We have been heading in a downward spiral for five years now. I have forgotten what is like to have a normal, or mediocre season. It has got very wearing.

We have seen quite a few people around the club depart over that time.

If the worst happens, many of the clubs we will be facing, our Western League side used to play in the 1980s.

What a fall. But it's looking not just a possibility, but likely.

Unless we can start a big turnaround, but it absolutely has to start now. Sorry for the depressing tone, but that's where we as a club are.

I will still be here as long as the club exists, as a fan you are there for the good times and bad, but I would take just "normal" times at the moment.

'till next time,

Up The Terras!

Weymouth FC Women

On Sunday 22nd February. The ladies played in an entertaining game against Cobham Sports FC ladies in the county plate semi final.

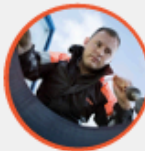

After Cobham went 1-0 up in the second half a fantastic equaliser from Frankie Townsend brought the score level at 1-1 taking the game to a penalty shootout. The ladies came out victorious and we are through to the final to be played against Ridgeway on the 21st April! Well done on a fantastic achievement against a higher league opponent.

This weekend sees the ladies back at the Bob Lucas on Sunday 1st March in a home league match against Bournemouth Electric.

THE NON-LEAGUE PAPER

ESSENTIAL READING FOR FOLLOWERS OF THE NATIONAL GAME

To subscribe, visit www.thenonleaguefootballpaper.com/subscriptions

EVERY so often, a story breaks in Non-League where you have to not just double take but triple. That was the feeling we had at NLP towers when Bury FC announced they'd appointed manager Anthony Johnson – as SOLE manager.

Now, in case you don't know, Johnson has formed one half of, arguably, Non-League's most successful management duo in recent years.

Alongside his best mate Bernard Morley, the duo have spent 17 years in the dug-out together since landing the job at North West Counties League Ramsbottom United.

They were in their mid-20s then and have since gone on to win two promotions with Rammy, followed by three promotions in three-and-a-half years at Salford City under the Class of 92 microscope.

Spells at Chester, who they took to the National League North play-offs, and Spennymoor Town followed before returning to the dug-out May 2023 to take charge of then-NPL Premier Radcliffe.

The duo delivered their sixth promotion as a pair to take Boro to Step 2 for the first time in club history.

The only surprise is they're yet to manage in Non-League's top flight.

From a journalist's point of view, there aren't many better duos to interview either. They're open, honest, to the point, funny – and clearly knowledgeable. Their love for the game – and each other – shines through as well.

So that's why it would have surprised many to see them branch out separately.

Johnson has always dreamed of the Bury job. It's his club and even though it means dropping two levels, he just couldn't turn down the chance to try and lead his team back up the Pyramid.

He wanted Morley to join him but he's happy at Radcliffe – a club on his own doorstep – and decided to stay on, signing a new contract.

Johnson joined us on a recent episode of The NLP's Non-League Goalmouth for a fascinating chat on, among many other great stories, the decision.

Johnson told The NLP: "The biggest thing for me – apart from all the other stuff we're aware of that I'm a Bury lad and a Bury fan – was that, and

I've got to be honest because that's how I do things, I thought, 'If someone else took the job, it wouldn't become available again for a few years'.

"I don't want to start throwing names out there but if managers with real quality, locally to us, took the gig, I just didn't think the job would come up again.

"Whatever you call that, it sort of bothered me because I always thought down the line at some point me and Bern would take the Bury job.

"I was saying to him, 'Look, we've got to take it now. If we don't take it now it's something I, especially, will regret'.

"Because it will be one of those things when I finish and look back I can say, good or bad, right or wrong, I did it, I gave it a go. That was probably the overriding reason for it. Added to all the other factors – it's a club I've supported since I was a young boy."

Johnson and Morley have been through more than just football management together and that's what made the decision so tough.

"Our daughters were born within a couple of weeks of each other, he was the best man at my wedding," Johnson, who will remain in his day job at Radcliffe, said. "We're friends. From a friendship point of view, nothing changes.

"I've really made peace with the fact I've got to give this a go – however it pans out. Hopefully it pans out as I've dreamed and imagined. If it doesn't, I've taken an opportunity I've waited for 17 years for and given it the best shot I can.

"Unfortunately to do that I've had to turn a few lives upside down. And I mean that. I know it might sound like I am exaggerating the point but our families, our lives, are so intertwined.

"I spent two hours at Bernard's mum's house. Bern was working, he didn't even know I went round. His brother was there, his step-dad, I sat down and explained my situation.

"They were all buzzing for me. You can imagine, very emotional too."

And that's the thing about football. Sometimes the decisions are tough. You can bet they will both be each other's biggest supporters from the sidelines.
