FROM THE BOARD ROOM

This is a rivalry that spans well over 130 years, built on the rich and shared history of the two clubs, and one that has continued to grow in both intensity and importance over time.

Fixtures like this always carry an extra edge, but with both sides fighting to secure their place in the league, the stakes today couldn't be much higher. There is a clear respect for Dorchester and what they bring, but also a real understanding of what this moment represents for us. These are the occasions you want to be part of – competitive, meaningful, and with everything on the line.

Today is another important chapter in that long-standing rivalry, and one we approach with full focus and determination.

Moments like this are only possible because of the work that has gone in over the course of a long and demanding season. And as we reach this stage, it's fair to say it has felt like one of the longest campaigns in recent memory. There has been change, there have been challenges, and there have been periods where we've had to show real resilience to keep moving forward.

But through it all, there has been a consistent effort from everyone connected to the club to keep standards high and to keep pushing in the right direction. That togetherness has been vital.

It's also important to recognise that what happens on the pitch is only one part of the story. The work that goes on behind the scenes, often unseen and often unrecognised, is what allows the club to function week in, week out.

So I want to place on record a sincere thank you to everyone involved – our volunteers, supporters, and all those who give their time and energy in so many different ways. Your commitment, especially during a challenging season, is what keeps this club going and gives us the platform to compete.

As we head into the final stretch, that collective spirit will be as important as ever.

Ralph

FROM THE DUG OUT

Good afternoon and welcome to the Bob Lucas Stadium for today's derby against Dorchester Town FC.

These are the games everyone looks forward to. There's always an edge when we face Dorchester, and we know exactly what today means to our supporters and everyone connected with the club.

Derby matches have their own feel, and they're decided by attitude, discipline, and who is willing to give that little bit extra. We'll need to be right at it from the first whistle.

The players understand the importance of the occasion. They've been working hard, and there's a strong sense of togetherness in the group. Now it's about delivering a performance that matches the occasion.

Your support will be vital, as always. The atmosphere you create in games like this can make a real difference, and we'll need you with us every step of the way.

Let's make it a strong afternoon at home.

Up the Terras.

Albert
Goodman

Albert Goodman are unable to attend this match so have donated their spaces to the Whitehead family.

"Our son Fred has recently been through an incredibly serious illness after being diagnosed with meningococcal meningitis and sepsis. Thanks to the outstanding care he received, he is now improving every day. While there is still a journey ahead, we are confident he will make a full recovery.

We would like to express our heartfelt thanks to the players of Weymouth Football Club for their thoughtfulness and generosity. Your encouragement has meant so much to Fred and has given him a real boost during a challenging time.

We would also like to extend a special thank you to Adam Purchase and Ben Tomlinson, who know Fred is a big Terras supporter and reached out to Weymouth Football Club to help lift his spirits. We are also deeply grateful to the incredible staff at Dorset County Hospital, especially the team on Kingfisher Ward, for their compassion and dedication.

We will never forget the care they provided to Fred and to us as a family.

As we look ahead, we are beginning to think about ways to help other teenagers who are being cared for on the ward, including a fundraiser for a games console cart.

Thank you again to everyone who has been there for Fred - it truly means the world to us."

Jane Whitehead, Fred's Mother

FROM THE SA ADE MACDONALD

Good Afternoon,

I'd like to welcome the supporters, players & officials of Dorchester Town here to Weymouth. I hope you enjoy our hospitality this afternoon and I wish you all a safe journey back up over The Ridgeway after the game.

I'm going to start today with some anticipated congratulations. Anticipated because, as always, this programme had to be written ahead of time, before Friday's match against Bracknell. So, assuming Calvin featured on Friday, that appearance marked his 400th game for Weymouth FC.

By my reckoning, in the club's 136-year history, only 14 other players have ever reached that milestone. Calvin made his Terras debut back in September 2014, away at Bideford in the FA Cup, and over the 12 years since he has done it all in a Weymouth shirt.

He's grown as a player, lifted league titles, collected Player of the Season awards, and proudly captained the side. He's also shown remarkable loyalty and character through the tougher chapters, struggles, setbacks that the club has faced over that time.

Congratulations, Calvin. You now join a very select group in the club's history. The modern-day Mr Weymouth.

Over the next week or so, supporters will have the chance to vote for this year's Player of the Season awards. We'll be launching an online poll shortly, so please keep an eye out for that. The awards will be presented in the bar after our final home match on Saturday 18th April.

So, now that we've eaten the chocolate Easter eggs we get to the small matter of a bank holiday derby against Dorchester. It's fair to say that neither club has had the season we hoped for, and both of us find ourselves looking anxiously over our shoulders.

FROM THE SA ADE MACDONALD

As much as we all relish the rivalry and the bragging rights, I think most would agree that it would be far better for both clubs if we can avoid relegation and remain in the same division. These derby fixtures always bring bumper crowds, and both clubs benefit enormously from that. Beyond the financial boost, these matches are key for our less regular supporters, keeping people connected with their club. That engagement is every bit as important as the money spent on the day.

Notwithstanding what I just said, we do of course want those local bragging rights and the vital 3 points in the bag at the end of the game. Dorchester wanted it at Christmas and in the Senior Cup, so they will be hoping to restore some pride today. Aside from that the league positions make this an extra-important one for both clubs. Terras fans you have to be that 12th man today!

Up The Terras,

Ade

THOMAS TAYLOR

Good afternoon, everyone, and a happy ridgeway derby day to all.

Normally I would start this by welcoming the staff, players, and supporters of our visitors. But on this occasion, I do not extend those wishes to our visitors this afternoon.

To say the last home game was a game of two halves was an understatement. We did everything but score in that first half against Sholing with Matty Burrows missing the best chance for us in that first half.

Second half was like eleven strangers turned up and we offered absolutely nothing of note. The Sholing keeper might as well put up a deckchair in his goal. Such a shame after the great work in the first half.

Speaking of teams that have offered little that is the story with our visitors who have gone from the play offs last season to abject misery this season. Killick gone and Fogden in has not had the impact for which they had hoped. No wins in six league games including losing to us in the senior cup final. And apart from Sholing it will be a tall order to maintain their status at Step 3.

This is arguably the must win game of the season. We simply cannot lose and especially to his lot. Six to Eight points more will be probably enough to stay in the SPLS for another season.

Let us get behind Jamie and the boys this afternoon and send that lot packing back over the Ridgeway.

C'MON YOU TERRAS!

Thomas

STATS AND FACTS NUMBERS BEHIND THE GAME VS Dorchester Town

Well...where do I start with this one?! If we follow the adage of starting at the beginning then that seems pretty apt as our first meeting was just our first ever as a club. It was an October friendly in 1890 when founding players Drake, Grant & Frowde scored in a 3-1 win.

If we go for the most notable games then my eye is first drawn to 1899 in the Dorset league and our record win against any team – 16-0 where the opponents apparently downed tools as part of a scheduling protest.

More recently of course most fans will remember the “Who EIGHT the magpies” headlines when the Terras triumphed 8-0 on Boxing Day 2003. (How was it that long ago?!) That was a big game but has there ever been a Ridgway derby with more on the line than this weekend with both teams scrapping for points in a relegation battle?

Although many league encounters over the years have been crucial to one team or the other, I have struggled to find such a Ridgway derby that will have such immediate consequences for both parties. Perhaps the only real comparisons are several final qualifying rounds in the FA cup in the 50's & 60's when the carrot of round 1 proper and league opposition was the carrot.

It will be a blood and thunder encounter though that is for sure with the victor taking the spoils. A draw is of course possible but unlikely given Jamie Wells' start at the Terras – just one in his first 15 games.

In the form table the Terras have three wins in six whereas the Magpies have none. The hosts also boast 13 competitive games without a loss against these black & whites stretching back to 2015! As history has proved though, anything can happen on derby day...

DORCHESTER TOWN HISTORY

The history of Dorchester Town Football Club can be traced back originally to 1871 and the founding of The Dorchester Football Club. Like many clubs of that era, the Club played the rules of football that later evolved to become what is known today as rugby, but nevertheless the club quickly “attained an enviable reputation for respectability and skill” according to the Dorset County Chronicle.

By the end of the decade, the craze of Association Rules for the game of football had swept along the south coast, and on Monday, 18th October 1880, the town's men gathered in The Kings' Arms Hotel to “resuscitate” The Dorchester Football Club under association rules. They would play their home games at The Recreation Ground on Weymouth Avenue, which was home to the cricket club in the summer months. Leonard Robinson became the club's first-ever captain, a position he would hold for many years.

Due to the importance of the town's economy to the wider region, while most of the country typically took their half-holiday on a Saturday afternoon, the townsfolk of Dorchester took theirs on a Thursday, the day after market day. While the Saturday team of Dorchester Football Club struggled in the Dorset League, the Thursday team excelled. The town's unique weekend arrangements meant that many Dorchester clubs struggled to organise matches with opposition on Thursdays or to muster a team for Saturday matches outside of town. In the 1908/09 season, the club imposed a policy of only playing fellow Dorchester teams and visiting military teams.

However, this policy only lasted for one season, and in the following year, an alternative plan was drawn up. On 26 August 1910, representatives from Dorchester United (cricket), Rovers (cycling), Athletic, and Wanderers attended The Dorchester Football Club AGM and agreed to join them to create “a team worthy of the good old town of Dorchester.”

It was here that the club adopted its new name of Dorchester Town Football Club to signify its new united ambition for the town. In 1929, the club moved from the Recreation Ground to the dedicated Avenue Football Ground. Just five years later, a remarkable event took place at the ground on 30 August 1934. To commemorate the centenary of the Tolpuddle Martyrs, Lloyd George MP, the last of the Liberal Prime Ministers held a rally at a packed Avenue Ground. In the afternoon, Dorchester Town hosted the London Labour Football Club, followed in the evening by a game against an international workers' XI.

With post-war football thriving across the country, the club joined the Western League in 1947 and two years later turned professional with Mr. K.W. Holland declaring, “People will not turn up in large numbers to watch Dorset league football.” With the club now averaging gates of between 1000-1500, the club were able to attract bigger names to the club - none more so than former Wolves Goalkeeper, Ken Bird, who joined as player-manager from AFC Bournemouth.

DORCHESTER TOWN HISTORY

Bird quickly led the Magpies to success, winning the Western League Championship in 1954/55. The same year also saw us reach the First Round Proper of the FA Cup. Qualifying rounds saw us score victories over Poole, Bournemouth Gasworks, Portland and Winchester. In the first round, the club hosted fellow non-leaguer's Bedford Town in front of a gate of 3,500. A 2-0 win saw the club rewarded with the plum tie of York City at home. A record crowd of 5,750 packed out the Avenue Ground, but despite taking the lead, the Magpies would fall short, losing 5-2. York would go on to make the semi-finals that year.

The following year (1955/56), Dorchester Town once again made the first round proper. Having put aside Newport IoW in the final qualifying round, the club was drawn away to Norwich City. A packed Carrow Road saw the Magpies fall to a 4-0 defeat. They again reached the First Round proper in 1956/57. After being taken to a replay by Bideford, their reward was a trip to Loftus Road to face Queen's Park Rangers, where they once again fell to a 4-0 defeat. For the fourth year running, Dorchester Town reached the First Round Proper in a campaign that really turned heads. A local derby was on the cards in the fourth qualifying round as the club was drawn away to then high-flying local rivals Weymouth. Almost 6,000 were in attendance as a 2-2 draw brought them back over the Ridge, where a packed-out Avenue Ground watched the Magpies defeat the old enemy 2-1. The prize was the visit of the then-famous amateur team - and indeed holders of the FA Amateur Cup - Wycombe Wanderers.

The Magpies ran out 3-2 winners in a pulsating game. An away trip to Plymouth Argyle would await, but again, they would stumble to a heavy defeat to league opposition, this time 5-2. Then in '59, Dorchester Town were at it again. A Dinky Curtis goal against Weymouth gave the club another derby cup victory and put them in the First Round hat, where they were drawn away to Port Vale. Bill Gillett equalised, but the team slipped to a narrow 2-1 defeat.

The club joined the Southern League (South) in 1972 and five years later finished runners-up to Margate to gain promotion to the Premier Division. The following season saw the Magpies curtailed by the formation of The Alliance League (now The National League). Struggling in their initial season in the Premier Division (1978-79), they fell four places short of making the cut into the new league and were placed into the reformed Southern Division. Dorchester Town celebrated their centenary season by winning the Southern Division at the first time of asking, but with no promotion to the Alliance Premier in its first season of existence, they were denied the chance to play at the highest level of non-league football.

The following season, the club once again tasted FA Cup glory. A replay win over Minehead saw them rewarded with an all-Dorset clash at home to AFC Bournemouth in front of a sold-out Avenue Ground. A famous Paul Thorne goal took the club back to Dean Court, where a last gasp extra-time goal broke Magpies hearts.

DORCHESTER TOWN HISTORY

A severe financial crisis hit in the mid-eighties, with relegation and near bankruptcy. However, a remarkable season in 1986/87 saw the club win the league and return to the Premier Division. Having come so close to losing the club in the late 80s, Peter Aiken and the board realised that the old Avenue Ground had begun to outlive its purpose and brokered a deal with Tesco and the landowners, the Duchy of Cornwall, to develop a new stadium for the club. The move saw Dorchester Town establish themselves in the Southern Premier in the early 90s, before Stuart Morgan took over and led the club to sixth in 1994/95 and fourth in 1997/98, along with cup success including reaching the FA Cup First Round Proper once again, where they were knocked out away at Oxford United.

That season also saw the club reach the last sixteen of the FA Trophy. Having beaten Slough, Sutton, and Salisbury, the club hosted Woking at a sold-out Avenue Stadium. In a highly eventful game that will go down in club folklore, the Cards (and eventual winners) scored in the last minute to win 3-2. After a poor start to the 1999/2000 season, manager Stuart Morgan was relieved of his position as manager and was replaced by Mark Morris. Morris was able to steer the club out of the relegation zone in his first season but was unable to repeat the feat the following season when the Magpies lost the Premier Division place they had held for fourteen seasons. That season did see the club again reach the FA Cup First Round Proper, where, despite taking the lead, they lost 2-1 away to high-flying Wigan Athletic.

The Magpies threatened to regain their Premier Division status in their first season in the Eastern Division but finished in third place. However, they achieved their objective the following season, when after a fine campaign with only five defeats, the club returned to the Premier Division as Champions. In the first season back in the Premier Division, the club reached the play-offs for promotion to the newly launched Conference South. Having won away at Bath City, a swan-song Matty Holmes performance inspired the stripes to a 2-0 victory over Tiverton at Exeter City's St James' Park to become founding members of the Conference South. The Magpies almost reached the play-offs once again in their inaugural season in the Conference South, but missed out on another promotion opportunity on the final day of the season. The following season saw Mark Morris resign to be replaced by Mick Jenkins. Jenkins reign was short lived and the club went through a handful of managers until former Dorchester player and reserve team manager Phil Simkin took over. The club stalwart guided the Magpies to their greatest FA Cup triumph in the modern era as the club beat Plymouth Argyle 1-0 in the first round proper, in a match televised live. The reward was a trip to Luton Town in the second round, where the Magpies narrowly lost 2-1 in a pulsating game. Simkin would lead the Magpies to eight in the Conference South the following season, before financial difficulties hit the club and they were subsequently relegated to the Southern Premier League South. Whilst the club fought to get its finances back in order, the club spent many years in the wilderness, constantly fighting against relegation.

DORCHESTER TOWN HISTORY

That would eventually change when former player Glenn Howes returned to the club as manager and sparked a revival. That revival was further enhanced when Howes invited Tommy Killick to return to the club half way through the 23/24 season, to take over as manager, with Howes becoming his number two. Killick - an Avenue cult hero in his playing days - had seen remarkable success as manager at Poole Town, spanning well over a decade. Howes had been his number two at Poole for a number of years before embarking on his own managerial career, where he led Blackfield & Langley from the Wessex 1 to the Southern Premier League. Now reunited, the pair led Dorchester to 9th place in the 2023/24 season, before reaching the play-offs the following season. The Magpies would lose out to eventual play-off winners AFC Totton in the last minute of extra-time in a remarkable game.

DORCHESTER TOWN PLAYER BIOS

Gerard Benfield

Gerard Benfield re-joined the Magpies for a second spell in August 2024. Born on 28 September 1997 in Poole, Benfield began his career at Hamworthy United, before moving stepping up a couple of levels with Wimborne Town. His exploits at Cuthbury attracted the attention of Salisbury where he featured during the 19/20 season, before once again stepping up a level to join then National League side Weymouth in 2020. In August 2021, Benfield joined Dorchester Town on a short-term loan, making 16 appearances during the 2021–22 season. Spells with Weymouth, Salisbury and Wimborne followed, before he rejoined The Magpies on loan from Weymouth in 2024. His reliable performances in the first half of the season led to the move being made permanent in January 2025. Known for his commanding presence and shot-stopping abilities, Benfield brings a wealth of experience to the squad.

DORCHESTER TOWN PLAYER BIOS

Jack Dickson

Jack Dickson, a versatile right-sided player, joined Dorchester Town in 2023 following a long stint with Poole Town. Comfortable in both defensive and attacking roles, Dickson's pace and ability to beat a man one-on-one has often seen him hailed as one of the best right backs in the league. In 2020 he spent a year in the National League with Weymouth, before returning to Poole Town the following season. Dickson made over 242 appearances for the Dolphins before moving to the Avenue Stadium in September 2023, where he has quickly established himself as one of the first names on the team sheet and one of the best right backs in the league.

Ollie Haste

A versatile left-sided defender, Haste signed with Dorchester Town permanently from Yeovil Town in August 2024, following an impressive season on loan. Haste's all action displays during his season-long loan saw him win the Supporters' Player of the Season award and he further delighted Dorchester fans by making the move permanent the following summer, despite interest from numerous other clubs. Haste said at the time of signing: "It feels great to be a Dorchester player. I fell in love with the club the moment I came in on loan. The club has a clear vision to succeed that I want to continue where we left off. I had options at the end of last year but after discussions with family and friends, Dorch was always the right answer." The 21-year old previously won the Southern Premier League South whilst on loan from the Glovers at Truro City and also spent a period on loan at his hometown club, Barnstaple.

Will Spetch

Experienced defender Will Spetch, joined the Magpies in September 2023 from neighbours Poole Town. A hugely experienced centre back, Spetch made over 450 appearances for the Dolphins, having first joined them in the Wessex League in 2007-08. Spetch quickly made a name for himself with his leadership and aerial prowess, attracting the likes of AFC Bournemouth and Portsmouth. He made the move in to full-time football in March 2014, joining Sutton United. Injury however hampered his season with the U's and he returned to Poole the following season, where he'd go on to play for Tommy Killick for another 11 seasons. Following Killick's departure from Poole, he made the move across Dorset along with Corby Moore and Jack Dickson, where his powerful displays and obvious leadership qualities soon endeared him to the Magpies faithful. His threat at set pieces saw him score eight times in his debut season. He scored four the following season, including a memorable 98th minute winner on the last day of the season at Hungerford, which secured a place in the play-offs.

Harvey Wright

A summer signing from Dorset neighbours Wimborne Town, Harvey is powerful and dynamic centre back, who has won titles and awards where ever he has been. Wright came through the youth ranks at Poole Town before joining Wessex League side Christchurch, where he was a crucial part of the squad that went on a memorable FA Cup run, reaching the third qualifying round where they narrowly lost on penalties to Dulwich Hamlet, live on the BBC. From Christchurch he joined Hamworthy United, helping the Hammers win the Wessex League and reach the Southern League South play-offs the following season. Wright rejoined Poole Town in 2023 where he won the Dolphins' Player of the Year award in his debut season in the Southern Premier League. He joined Wimborne the following season, where he won the Player's Player of the Year award and Chairman's Player of the Year Award.

DORCHESTER TOWN PLAYER BIOS

Matt Buse

Buse joined Dorchester Town in July 2024 from National League South side Truro City. A combative central midfielder, Buse has extensive experience at Step One and Two of the non-league ladder, having previously featured clubs including Yeovil Town, Torquay United and Weymouth, whilst also making over 100 appearances for Taunton Town. In his debut season at The Avenue, Buse was a regular in the Magpies side, showing both his defensive and attacking versatility with appearances in addition to his usual central midfield role at wing-back and also further forward in attacking midfield, chipping in with an impressive six goals in his debut season at The Avenue.

Marcus Daws

A Northern Ireland U21 international, Daws is an electric wide-midfielder who began his career with AFC Bournemouth, coming through the Cherries' academy, where he enjoyed a fruitful loan spell under Tommy Killick at Poole Town. Daws joined Luton Town in 2023, but left the then-Premier League club the following season. He reunited with Killick at Dorchester in January 2024, where he got back to enjoying his football and playing with confidence once again. He joined AFC Totton briefly at the beginning of 2024/25 season but returned to The Avenue in October, where his end of season form was a major factor in The Magpies getting into the Play-offs that season.

Corby Moore

Midfielder Moore joined the Magpies from Poole Town in September 2023. A metronomic central midfielder, he began his career with Southampton, where he made his debut in a League Cup tie against Stevenage Borough. He moved to the United States in 2014, joining Indy Eleven, before returning to the UK to sign for then-Conference National side, Forest Green Rovers. In January 2016 he joined National League South side Bishops Cleeve, before making the switch to Chelmsford City the following season. Following his release from the National League South side, Moore joined Poole Town where he went on to make 260 appearances for the Dolphins, where he was an integral part of the team that won promotion to the National League South. Corby moved to the Avenue in September 2023 alongside Will Spetch and Jack Dickson, where he was soon to be reunited with Killick once again. He quickly established himself as a vital part of the Magpies midfield, where his composure and tactical awareness allow him to dictate play from the centre of the pitch.

Cameron Murray

Murray returned to The Avenue Stadium in the summer of 2025, having first featured for the club in 2018. The technically gifted midfielder came through the Academy of Leeds United, before signing for neighbours Bradford City. He signed for York City in 2013, before going on to feature for club's such as Scarborough United, FC United of Manchester and Stalybridge Celtic in the Northern Premier League. Murray moved to Dorset in 2018, joining the Magpies for his first spell. Murray stood out in a struggling team and his energetic and creative displays soon caught the attention of local rivals Weymouth. Murray made the move over the Ridgeway, where he played a significant part in their back-to-back promotions to the National League. A change of manager saw Murray team up with Tommy Killick at Poole, joining on loan initially in 2022 before making the move permanent the following season. Killick's departure saw Murray move to Southern Premier League side Gosport Borough last season, before re-joining The Magpies the following summer.

DORCHESTER TOWN PLAYER BIOS

Luke Pardoe

Luke Pardoe joined Dorchester Town in February 2024, bringing versatility and experience to the midfield. A cultured winger, who can also fill in at full-back, he began his career with AFC Bournemouth's youth setup. Upon his release from the Cherries, he joined Poole Town, where he made over a 100 appearances before his move to the Magpies. Since joining Dorchester, Pardoe has contributed both in attack and defense, showcasing his tactical nous and adaptability. He scored a memorable sixth minute goal in the 2024/25 play-off semi-final, where his mazy run from the half-way line saw him beat four Totton defenders, before slotting home to put the Magpies ahead.

Tom Smith

Tom Smith joined Dorchester Town in June 2025 from Taunton Town. A cultured, goalscoring midfielder, Smith began his career with Swindon Town, before joining National League South side Bath City. Smith became a Twerton Park icon during a seven-year spell, where he made over 260 appearances and scored over 50 goals for The Romans. He was notably named National League South Player of the 2019–20 Season. He left Bath in the Summer of 2024 to sign for fellow Somerset side, Taunton Town, where he captained the team to a top-half finish. Known for his forward runs, creativity and goal contributions, his arrival is seen as a significant coup for Magpies manager Tom Killick, who had been a long-term admirer.

Charlie Wooding

A young and highly promising midfielder, Wooding joined the Magpies in August 2025 having impressed on trial during the pre-season of 2025/26. An England Schoolboys international, Wooding came through the academy system at Salisbury FC, where he made his Southern Premier League debut aged just 16. In search of more playing time, Wooding signed for Bashley in 2024, where he impressed hugely in his debut season in the Southern League South Division. In January last season, he made the switch to league rivals Westbury United, where he went on to win a number of man of the match awards and picked up February's Player of the Month award. His calm and mature displays at such a young age caught the attention of Tommy Killick, who invited him to trial with the Magpies this summer.

Joe Parker

Joe began his career at Gloucester City, where his goalscoring exploits quickly attracted the attention of Newport County. Parker was then sold to Leamington where he played as a right winger. It was a role that he also occupied at Chippenham Town and one that he was brought back to City to fill with the aim of him feeding Danny Wright in the middle. The former Newport County forward scored 11 times in 15 games at the end of a 2023-24 campaign that saw Yellows retain their Pitching In Southern League Premier Division South status. It is without argument that Joe's goals were a huge factor in that. Agreeing signing originally on loan from Gloucester City in 2024, Joe went on to score 21 goals for The Yellows in 58 appearances.

DORCHESTER TOWN PLAYER BIOS

Luke Roberts

Roberts signed for Dorchester Town in January 2024, where the former Poole Town forward arrived following a highly successful spell working with boss Tom Killick, making over 170 appearances for the Dolphins in a 5-year spell during which time he attracted interest from full-time professional clubs. Hailed by Killick as “probably the best I have ever managed”, Roberts has overcome terrible luck with injuries following a serious knee ligament injury, and having worked his way back to full fitness became a regular in the side last season, impressing the Magpies faithful with his performances on the wing.

Wayne Robinson

Signed in the summer of 2024 from Salisbury, Robinson arrived at The Avenue having won back-to-back promotions in the previous two seasons, firstly at Sholing before gaining promotion from the Southern League Premier South with the Wiltshire side. Niggling injuries impacted his debut season with the Magpies, but the lively forward still made telling contributions both through the middle and from wider positions. His most memorable moment at The Avenue came in a dramatic 3-2 win against Basingstoke Town last season, with the Magpies scoring twice in injury time and Robinson netting the crucial 90+5th minute winner at the Bypass End to send the crowd wild.

Wes Fogden - Interim player/manager

he former AFC Bournemouth, Portsmouth and Yeovil midfielder returned to the Avenue Stadium in the summer of 2024, fifteen years after making his senior footballing debut with the Magpies. Fogden initially signed for the Magpies from Brighton & Hove Albion, playing over forty times for the club in the then Conference South. His battling and creative displays saw him join big spenders Havant & Waterlooville, with whom he won back-to-back promotions with to the National League. His displays for the Portsmouth-based club saw him move into the Football League, firstly with AFC Bournemouth where he featured over 50 times for the Cherries before joining Portsmouth FC for the 2014-15 season. He moved to Yeovil the following season before returning to Havant & Waterlooville in 2016. Fogden joined Dorking Wanderers in 2020, where he helped the club gain promotion from the National League South, and then spent two seasons under Tommy Killick at Poole Town before returning home to the Avenue Stadium to reunite with Killick ahead of the 2024/25. Appointed Player/Coach in Summer 2025.

Steve Dodge – Goalkeeper Coach

An experienced goalkeeper who came up through the same Dorchester Town Youth team as former Liverpool player David West, Dodge went on to a career with Dorchester, Weymouth, Bashley and Christchurch amongst others, before moving into coaching with Portland United.

Brian Churchill – Coach

Churchill is an experienced coach and UEFA B licensed coach, who has previously been involved with AFC Bournemouth's academy, as well as spells at Swanage Town & Herston and Hamworthy United. Was head coach of the club's highly successful U23's side before stepping aside at the end of last season.

Woods Words

Richard Wood

I thought we were a little unlucky to lose to Sholing in the last match here.

In the first half I thought we played well with the wind but most of our attacks came from playing the ball on the floor.

The disappointment came from us not being able to hit the target with our efforts.

We were very disappointing in the second half, yes we were playing into the wind, but if we had just played it on the deck like we did in the first half I am sure we would have done a lot better.

Sholing scored with one of their efforts and when looking back on it, they worked Max Evans far more than we did their goalkeeper. The other annoying thing was some of the decisions made.

Tor Swann clearly had his shirt pulled, everyone in the ground saw it, yet Tor gets booked for dissent.

That's gone now though and I am unable to comment on Good Fridays visit to Bracknell.

Hopefully we have got a decent result.

Today wont decide things for either club, but it could be very important, as every single point matters.

'till next time,

Up The Terras!

A FANTASTIC TWO DAYS AT THE BOB LUCAS

Over the Easter break, Weymouth FC's Bob Lucas Stadium played host to two brilliant days of our "Train Like a Pro" experience – and what a memorable couple of days it turned out to be.

From the moment the first session kicked off, the excitement levels were sky-high. The young players were treated to an unforgettable surprise when Matty and Stefanos from the Weymouth FC Men's team, along with Morgan and Ellia from Weymouth FC Women, joined in for matches, coaching moments, and plenty of smiles. It was a special way to start the week, and the players' enthusiasm set the tone for everything that followed.

Day Two brought even more Easter magic. Alongside Stefanos, Matty and Morgan returning for another session, the group were joined by Euan – who has played almost every position for the Terras this season. Naturally, the first thing we did was put him in goal, much to the delight of the children. These moments of fun, connection, and inspiration are exactly what Train Like a Pro is all about.

Across both days, more than a 50 young footballers had the chance to experience life inside a real football environment, learning, playing, and creating memories with players who represent the club with passion and pride. For many of them, these are the moments that spark lifelong love for the game.

A huge thank you goes to everyone who made the event possible:

- The Board
- Our fantastic volunteers
- Ground staff
- Community staff
- And of course, our media team

Your hard work ensures that opportunities like this continue to grow and thrive.

We'd also like to extend our thanks to the players who gave up their time to inspire the next generation of Terras. Their energy and willingness to get involved made the two days truly special.

NON-LEAGUE Day has once again proved to be a roaring success with a record number of fans clicking through the turnstiles in support of their local clubs.

Celebrating its 16th year in existence, the initiative, started 2010 by Queens Park Rangers fan James Doe, took full advantage of the international break by welcoming supporters of Premier League and EFL clubs through their doors as the Non-League football took centre stage on the fixture calendar.

It proved a day to remember also for 60-year-old retired school teacher Danny Burkey, who was chosen to lead his local team, Ossett United, for a crucial game from the manager's dugout.

Superfan Danny was named as assistant manager for the day as the Sheepicorns hosted Grimsby Borough in a crunch relegation six-pointer in NPL East.

Diagnosed with incurable prostate cancer in June 2021, Burkey had planned to attend the match, together with friends and family, to raise funds and awareness for Prostate Cancer UK.

But upon learning of his story, Ossett decided to centre the day around him.

Burkey was introduced to the players by manager James Walshaw during a rain-swept training session on Tuesday night and presented with a personalised branded bench-coat, plus a match shirt emblazoned with 'Burkey 45' - the 45 to highlight how one man dies every 45 minutes from the disease.

Non-League Day now attracts strong and widespread support from the FA, Premier League and Football League clubs to MPs, media organisations, charities, and Non-League teams across the country.

But alarming figures from a survey conducted by sports media brand LiveScore actually reveal low awareness of local clubs, and divided views on the 3pm blackout.

The fans' survey, capturing perspectives from fans of professional clubs, Non-League fans, and those who follow both, showed that just 23% of Non-League fans care about the outcome of a game - demonstrating that it's not just about winning, but the full experience of following your team and love of the game.

The report also reveals a visibility gap - 55% of professional football club fans say they'd be open to attending Non-League games, but four in ten can't name their local Non-League club.

Additionally, fans across both the professional and Non-League game doubt the relevance of the 3pm blackout, with just 27% of professional club fans feeling the 3pm blackout protects Non-League attendances, reopening the age-old debate of its usefulness in the modern game.

The findings shine a light on what draws fans to Non-League football, the barriers that still exist, and the opportunities to strengthen its appeal.

They underline the importance of preserving the fan experience at all levels, while reinforcing the unique role Non-League clubs play in sustaining the spirit and community of the game.

In an era shaped by shifting priorities in the professional game, Non-League Day serves as a timely reminder of football's roots and the vital role supporters play at every level.

Dominic Vye, Marketing Director at LiveScore, said: "Our fan report underlines the fact that Non-League is not only the lifeblood of English football, but also has significant growth potential- the data shows that the interest is there, but there's a visibility gap.

"With over half of fans of pro clubs being open to attending Non-League games, we want to champion the unique strengths of further down the pyramid and empower existing fans to bring their friends along to Non-League Day 2026.

"Being able to attend games with your closest friends can act as a powerful catalyst, reconnecting supporters with the heart of the game and ensuring the future of football remains as vibrant at the grassroots as it is at the top."

For regular readers of this column, and for us at The NLP of course, every day is Non-League Day, but these figures from LiveScore prove that more work is required to promote the game at this level and encourage supporters across the UK to attend their local club. Their mission to fuel fans' passion for sport is most welcome.
